VOL. 42. VICTORIA, B. C., THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1913 NO. 120

EIGHT PHYSICIANS ATTEND YOSHIHITO

Japanese Emperor Suffering From Attack of Inflammation of Lungs

BULLETIN IS ISSUED FROM TOKIO PALACE

Illness is Outcome of Slight Cold Contracted on May Eighteenth

SITUATION IS GRAVE HAD FORMER ATTACKS

Tokio, May 22.—Emperor Yoshihito of Japan was taken ill to-day. The physicians who are attending him declare that he is suffering from inflammation of the lungs.

The Emperor's illness is the result of a slight cold which he contracted on May 18, the inflammation having developed since then and having increased so greatly in the last twenty-four hours as to make it necessary that the Japanese public should be notified by official bulletins.

It was not thought by the physicians at the time that the cold was anything but an ordinary matter which would be corrected within due course. It was announced at the time that his indisposition was unimportant and that he would soon resume his activities.

To-night, however, the nation has been shocked by the official announcement from the Imperial palace that the Emperor is seriously ill. The Emperor during the last few hours has been attended by eight physicians, all of whom sign the bulletin that is now issued. It reads as follows:

"The Emperor, who has been suffering from a slight cold, developed inflammation of the lungs to-day. We do not consider his condition justifies great anxiety but his temperature is higher."

It is reported since the issuing of the bulletin that the Emperor is in a state of high fever, and that the physicians are in constant attendance on him.

The Emperor of Japan succeeded his father on July 30 last. He is now in his 34th year and has three sons, the eldest of whom is Crown Prince Hirohito, just twelve years old.

The trouble with the Emperor's lungs at the present time is not altogether an unlooked for occurrence, as he has on several previous occasions suffered from lung trouble. During the early part of the year 1908, before he became Emperor he suffered an attack, and his condition then was so serious that the court physicians had doubts about his recovery.

His condition now is said to be grave but the physicians hope that as he has pulled through on previous occasions, he will make a successful recovery under the present circumstances.

PRINCESSES TO GET INCOMES FOR LIFE

Leopold's Daughters Lose Congo Suit but Do Not Go Empty Handed

Brussels, May 22.—Although the three daughters of the late King Leopold failed to win their suit against the state in connection with their claim for the entire Congo property left by their father, valued at nearly $14,000,000, the government recognizes that they are entitled to some compensation. An arrangement has been reached between the minister of colonies and the representatives of the princesses, whereby they are to receive a portion of the estate.

The amount has not yet been fixed, but it is understood that it will be approximately $800,000 cash, possibly $1,200,000 to Princess Louise, in which case it will take the form of an unattachable life annuity, to avoid seizure by creditors.

AMBASSADOR LEASES NEW HAMPSHIRE HOME

Concord, N. H., May 22.—The British ambassador, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, has leased the A. G. Parsons estate at Dublin for a summer embassy, it was announced to-day. Dublin claims the distinction of having the highest altitude of any town in the state.

Ambassador Spring-Rice will have ex-Secretary of the Treasury Macveagh for a neighbor. President Wilson will be at Cornish, within a two-hours' motor trip across the hills of southwestern New Hampshire.

WIRELESS MESSAGE REPORTS THE PRINCE ALBERT IS ASHORE NEAR PORT SIMPSON

Steamship Humboldt Takes News to Ketchikan That Grand Trunk Coastal Boat Sends Out Distress Signals and is Landing Passengers

Ketchikan, Alaska, May 22. — The steamship Humboldt, which arrived from Seattle this morning, brought news of picking up at 3.30 a. m. distress signals from the G. T. P. steamship Prince Albert, which was ashore near Port Simpson, B. C. The signals were answered by another steamer, and the Humboldt continued north. The Prince Albert reported that she was listing heavily with the falling of the tide, and that the passengers were being taken off with what freight and baggage could be removed.

Seattle, May 22.—At the G. T. P. offices here no information concerning the Prince Albert's mishap was obtainable. It was said, however, that she carried no passengers. Perhaps a work crew for the railroad was being taken north, and the wireless message may have referred to them as passengers. The Prince Albert is a fine steel boat, British built of 1,015 tons and plies between Vancouver, Victoria and Queen Charlotte Islands.

The steamship Humboldt, which reported the Prince Albert ashore near Port Simpson, has a strikebreaking operator on board. He is inexperienced, and was unable to properly interpret the signals as transmitted by the wireless operator of the Prince Albert. The Humboldt reports the Canadian steamer Transit as answering the call, but the Transit carries no wireless apparatus, and it is impossible to determine what vessel if any, is standing by the disabled steamship.

At the local offices of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, City Passenger Agent C. F. Earle said this morning no information concerning the mishap to the Prince Albert was obtainable. Italians are beginning to go north, and one of these parties may be those on board the ship.

The Prince Albert was spoken by wireless this morning at 4 a.m. and no mention of her accident was given.

BEWARE, THE PACIFIC! SAYS MRS. HOMER LEA

Predicts Defeat at Hands of Japan If War Should Commence

New York, May 22.—Mrs. Homer Lea, widow of the picturesque Californian who called himself General Homer Lea, whose book, "The Valor of Ignorance," caused a stir in the army a few years ago, sailed for Europe to-day with the dire prophecy of defeat at the hands of the Japanese on her lips.

"The people of California and the rest of the Pacific coast are deliberately forcing the Japanese into war," she said. "The subjects of the Emperor are prepared to the minute, and it is my firm belief that the Japanese could seize and hold for an indefinite time all of California, Oregon and Washington if they suddenly launched war against us.

"If war between this country and Japan comes, it will be before the Panama canal is open for battleships. The war would be over before we were half started."

ANTI-SUFFRAGETTE RIOTS QUELLED BY RESERVES

Philadelphia, Pa., May 22.—An attempt by woman suffragettes to conduct an open-air mass meeting last night in the mill district of Kensington resulted in a riot which was not quelled until police reserves had been called to the scene. The mill workers crowded around a cart on which the women speakers were seated, and when the speeches started some of the audience began making interruptions.

A free-for-all fight was precipitated when sympathizers with the women attempted to interfere, and not until the police had used their clubs on a number of heads were the women rescued. No one was seriously hurt.

UNITE WITH AUSTRALIA ON TRADE DEVELOPMENT

London, May 22.—If Western England and Scottish ports are prepared to unite with the Australian state governments for the purpose of inaugurating a new steamship service for the development of trade in foodstuffs, the Victorian government will be willing to shoulder its share of the outlay. This was the proposition put up by the Victorian premier, Hon. William Watt, yesterday at Manchester to the merchants in that city.

The idea has proved to be popular, and the Manchester authorities have promised to submit definite proposals along these lines to the various Australian states.

FIFTEEN JAPANESE OF FIFTY ARE CITIZENS

San Franciscov, May 22.—Of 50 Japanese born in Honolulu and eligible to American citizenship only fifteen have availed themselves of the opportunity, according to the statement of Gilbert D. Metzger, a Honolulu contractor, who arrived here to-day. "It has been my observation," he said, "that Japanese are absolutely loyal to their own government, and do not care to become American citizens or permanent residents, even when they may."

The Hawaiian islands have a population of Japanese laborers, estimated at 75,000.

SENATORIAL ACTION AWAITED IN LONDON

Believed an Amendment Providing for Election or Referendum Will Be Added

London, May 22.—What the senate will do is a question which politicians here are eagerly asking one another. According to cables the Liberals will add an amendment providing that the naval bill shall not come into force without an election or a referendum.

"We can only foresee with regret that the defence question is about to become entangled with alien issues of constitutional policies," declares the Pall Mall Gazette.

The Westminster Gazette points out in a tone of perplexity that the Canadian argument over the Naval Bill is only one concerning the method. "No doubt we have our own opinion, which plan we should prefer if the choice rested with us, but that is precisely where the choice does not rest. The only safe course is for us to accept Canada's decision with the full knowledge that the situation cannot be forced."

NEGRO CONFESSES TO MURDERING HIS WIFE

Mob of Five Hundred Surround Police Station Howling for Man's Death

Kansas City, Mo., May 22.—A mob of five hundred negroes surrounded the police station in the negro quarter of this city to-day howling for the death of Wesley Robinson, one of their race, who confessed last night, the police say, to slaying his wife and daughter with a hatchet last Saturday night. The negro was hustled through the mob to a motor car and carried to police headquarters.

Jennie Hill, a negress whom in his confession Robinson is said to have implicated in the murders, was confined in the same police station. Her screams could be heard above the mob's cries.

ADVERTISE REPUBLICS IN GREAT METROPOLIS

London, May 22.—This city is in the throes of a friendly invasion by the republics of South America, which have established a joint advertising bureau in Newgate street. Exhibitions are to be given there of the products and manufactures of the various countries comprising the South American continent. The scheme is well supported by merchants and shipping companies who have dealings with the republics in question.

BURKE RELICS SOLD.

London, May 22.—A porcelain teapot, cream jug and two cups and saucers, once the property of Edmund Burke, the Irish orator, were sold at auction to-day for $7,600. The same teapot brought $750 when sold thirty years ago. It was presented to Burke when he was first elected member of the House of Commons for Bristol in 1774. The service was manufactured in Bristol.

EMPEROR OF RUSSIA ARRIVES AT BERLIN

Three Rulers Present In German Capital for the Royal Wedding

CZAR JOURNEYS IN AN ARMORED TRAIN

His Imperial Majesty Was Late To-day for First Time in Life Probably

MADE HASTY RUN BUT THE DUCHESS WAS FIRST

Berlin, May 22.—The gathering of three emperors, those of Germany, Russia and the British Dominions, for the wedding on Saturday of Princess Victoria Luise and Prince Ernest August of Cumberland, has made the German capital the centre of European interest.

Beside the great rulers, the only daughter of Emperor William is to be surrounded at her marriage by such a gathering of princes and princesses as has rarely been brought together. Extensive precautions have been taken for the safety of the royal personages, the Prussian police being assisted by large bodies of Russian and British detectives, while the soldiers at the stations and along the routes of the royal processions carry loaded rifles.

Emperor Nicholas, of Russia, arrives here this morning to attend the marriage of Princess Victoria Luise to Prince Ernest August, of Cumberland. The Russian emperor was met at the station by Emperor William and King George of England, and a great gathering of members of the various royal families. The Russian emperor drove with his imperial host to the castle. The wedding takes place Saturday.

Emperor Nicholas' journey from the frontier station at Eydtkuhnen to Berlin was made in the Russian Imperial armored train. The arrangements made by the Berlin police authorities for the protection of His Majesty were very important. The police were assisted in carrying them out by a considerable force of Russian detectives.

The crowds were even greater than those of yesterday. People packed sidewalks, windows, balconies and roofs, whence they had an almost constant view of passing and repassing royal processions from 8 o'clock in the morning until after noon.

Very early in the day the Dowager Duchess of Baden, the emperor's aunt, and the senior living member of the royal family of Prussia, arrived. She was followed shortly afterward by the Duke and Duchess of Cumberland.

On each occasion Emperor William, the empress, Prince Ernest August, of Cumberland, with his bride-to-be, the Princess Victoria Luise, together with a large contingent of Hohenzollern princes and princesses, drove to the station to escort the arriving guests to the castle.

All the processions followed the same route from the Anhalt terminus through Koenig Geratz street and the Avenue of Victory and along Unter der Linden to the castle.

At the arrival of the Duchess of Baden, Emperor William, a model of punctuality, was late, probably for the first time in his life, and the spectators on the platform were treated to the spectacle of His Majesty in a hasty run endeavoring to reach the halting place of the railway car before his aunt stepped out. He lost the race.

King George and Emperor Nicholas are so remarkably alike in appearance that it was difficult even for those familiar with both monarchs to identify them to-day except by the different uniforms they wore. One of the waiting rooms at the station has been converted into a dressing room in order to facilitate the repeated changes of uniforms which have to be made by Emperor William when he meets his royal guests.

King George of England displayed his interest in sport by attending the races at the Grunewald track this afternoon.

A state dinner is to be given at the castle this evening, at which all the royal and imperial guests will be present.

Represented Canada.

London, May 22.—At the reception of King George in Berlin yesterday Canada was represented by Lieut. Van De Osten, of the 62nd Fusiliers, St. Johns. He had obtained special permission to appear in uniform because his father was originally a Guelph adherent of the Cumberland House.

JUDGE O'CONNOR DEAD.

Guelph, Ont., May 21. — Word was received here of the death at St. Augustine, Fla., of Judge Edward O'Connor, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., after an illness extending over several months. Judge O'Connor is a native of Guelph. He was appointed junior judge of Algoma twenty years ago and went to Sault Ste. Marie. He was about 70 years of age.

JAPANESE OFFICIALDOM DISAPPOINTED AT CONTENTS OF UNITED STATES REPLY

Present Issue Strikes Vulnerable Point, National Honor; All That is Wanted is Equal Treatment With White Men Says the Osaka Mainischi

Tokio, May 22.—The reply of the United States government to the Japanese protest in regard to the California alien land ownership legislation, in saying that it does not involve any violation of the treaty between the United States and Japan, has caused great disappointment in official and other circles here. The Japanese foreign office considers it unsatisfactory, as it does not mention any intention on the part of the government at Washington to take official steps to nullify the act passed by the California legislature.

The Japanese foreign minister is urging upon Viscount Chinda, Japanese ambassador at Washington, the necessity of pressing the Japanese interpretation of the American-Japanese treaty. Secretary of State Bryan's proposal to refer the question to a referendum in the state of California is not received with favor here as the result is considered doubtful.

The war talk emanating from Europe and reaching Japan by cable is not understood in official and other circles here. The atmosphere is calm and great reserve is shown.

Some of the newspapers, however, have begun to speak out more freely. The leading daily newspaper, the Osaka Mainishi, finds amusement in what it calls the American fear of Japanese aggression. It says: "All Japan wants for the Japanese is equal treatment with white men. Japan's progress has reached the point where she will no longer consent to discrimination being shown against her subjects."

The general hope is expressed here that the reply sent from Washington is not America's final word, and especially as the United States government by its intervention in California inspired the belief here that it would adopt strong measures in behalf of the Japanese.

It is believed in Japan that the difficulty eventually will be settled by diplomacy, but the question of how Japan is to proceed next is a puzzle to the authorities. Japan is a stranger to the technicalities of American laws, and does not see her way clear to take the initiative in a lawsuit, while national patriotism points to a formal request that naturalization be granted, which would mean the virtual expatriation of Japanese subjects. Public opinion, however, seems to be in favor of a demand for naturalization as the most feasible means of satisfying Japanese prestige.

The opinion in official circles is that the nation has been led to expect some action by Washington, and if nothing should be done from that quarter the Japanese public, which has remained calm and dignified, is liable to become greatly irritated. One official said today: "Foreigners say that the Japanese are supersensitive and superproud. This may be true. We do not care for the material losses incurred. The present issue strikes us on our most vulnerable point, namely, our national honor, and any attack on that is like plunging a dagger into our vitals.

"Of course, it is idle to talk of war, but I think that in justice to the Japanese it should be pointed out that the quiet expectancy of the people is more important than irresponsible war talk indulged in by the jingoes last month. If the Americans understand this they will likewise understand why the failure of a response to the Japanese appeal is likely to result in some estrangement of the traditional friendship between the United States and Japan."

Washington, D. C., May 22.—The basis of the state department's contention that the California alien land act does not in terms violate the treaty of 1911, was a careful scrutiny by all the lawyers of the cabinet of the language of the law and the treaty. Save upon the single point that in depriving Japanese in California of the right of inheritance to real estate, they concluded there was no ground for complaint.

And in view of the expected declaration in the Webb bill that it was not to be construed as abrogating any treaty provision which thereby appeared to assure the Japanese against unlawful escheatment of their property, it was felt that the national government could do nothing less than admit that the framers of the Webb Act seemed to have succeeded in their purpose to make it proof against attacks in the courts.

Officials gather from the Tokio dispatches that the negotiations are drifting into the stage of pure disputation, where the international lawyers on both sides will have ample opportunity to exercise their full resources in determining the exact relation between the California law and the treaty of 1911.

Some expect that the result will be an invocation by the Japanese government of the right of arbitration guaranteed by the special treaty of 1908.

The committee of the Japanese parliament to-day made a favorable report on the proposed appropriation of $600,000 for the representation of Japan at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco in 1915.

AUSTRALIA CAN SEE BUT ONE SOLUTION

Says War Will Fololw When Washington Admits She is Powerless

Sydney, N. S. W., May 22.—There will be only one solution to the American-Japanese trouble, and it will be war, according to the general opinion here where the Japanese menace has long been regarded with watchful eyes. It is considered that from the tone of the press dispatches, Japan regards her national honor as having been sullied, and appears to think it to be not within the bounds of possibility that the federal government will allow the California measure to go into effect.

Those who talk on the matter here say that as soon as Nippon is convinced that the federal government is powerless to bring about the desired end, the mask of diplomacy will be thrown off and battle, murder and sudden death will be the watchwords of the little brown men.

MOUNTAIN PEAK IS BLOWN TO FRAGMENTS

Chambery, France, May 22. — Military engineers blasted into fragments to-day the loose peak of a mountain consisting of 86,000 cubic feet of rock, which had threatened to fall and destroy at any moment the village of Tormery. The village had been in danger from a slide ever since its foundation as a cluster of huts in the Middle Ages.

A charge of 900 pounds of dynamite was used for the explosion. Before the fuse as fired the villagers removed all their portable property to the neighboring hills.

BARON ASHBOURNE DEAD.

London, May 22.—Baron Ashbourne, who was Lord Chancellor of Ireland three times under Conservative governments, died to-day after a seizure while walking in Hyde Park. He was 75 years old, and was the originator of the land purchase legislation for facilitating the sale of Irish holdings to tenants.

PROVED SHE WAS THE DISAPPEARING BLONDE

San Rafael, Cal., May 22. — When Constable George Agnews arrested 16-year-old Clara Scott upon information furnished by the police of Seattle, where the girl lives, he told her she would be taken back home.

"Think so? Why, I'm the original disappearing blonde," she told him. "Tell you what, I'll bet you a box of cigars to a pair of gloves you can't keep me in this jail twenty-four hours."

"Done," said Agnews grimly, and Sheriff Joshua Keating confirmed the wager when he locked the cell door on the prisoner.

"Yesterday morning the cell was empty. "All that I know," said Sheriff Keating, "is that the girl is gone."

KING GEORGE RECEIVES ARTS SOCIETY MEDAL

London, May 22.—The Royal Society of Arts has awarded the Albert medal to King George in recognition of his efforts to become personally acquainted with the social and economic conditions of the dominions, and to promote the arts, manufactures and commerce of the kingdom and empire. It is probable that the Duke of Connaught will present the medal on the return of the royal party from Berlin.

HEAVY FLYING BOAT TAKES FOUR PEOPLE

Hammondsport, N. Y., May 21.—A new flying boat for Harold F. McCormick, of Chicago, was tried yesterday by Glenn H. Curtiss when he took up four passengers. The construction of this machine is unusually heavy, being made for rough water use. McCormick intends to use the machine to replace his automobile in travelling between his home at Lake Forest and his office in Chicago. When taken out yesterday the machine showed good speed considering her weight, which is about a ton when loaded. It is the first four-passenger flying boat made in America.

WILL ASK QUESTIONS ABOUT RESIGNATION

E. M. Macdonald Will Pursue Matter Between General Mackenzie and Minister

FRICTION EXTENDS OVER A LONG PERIOD

Londoners Who Met Colonel Hughes Became Assured He Was a "Character"

NOT SURPRISED AT PRESENT SITUATION

Ottawa, Ont., May 22.—No new light is likely to be thrown on the resignation of General Mackenzie, chief of staff until certain questions which E. M. Macdonald, the opposition military critic, proposes to ask, are answered. All that is definitely and officially known is that the general has placed his resignation in the hands of the minister and it has been accepted. General Mackenzie leaves for home in June. That there have been differences of opinion between Co. Sam Hughes and General Mackenzie is not denied in official circles, but it is said that there is no correspondence which will throw any light on the cause of the disagreement. There is a story that the trouble really commenced last summer when Hon. W. T. White was acting minister of militia at the time Col. Hughes was in England. On his return he supported Mr. White and the friction continued until General Mackenzie resigned.

London, May 22.—The resignation of General Colin Mackenzie as chief of the Canadian militia staff has caused not a little comment here, particularly in military circles in which Hon. Col. Hughes moved during his visit last year. "Sam Hughes is what is known as a 'character,'" declares one writer in a popular newspaper here to-day.

Continuing, this writer says there was some raising of eyebrows when he became minister of militia, though it was regarded as a reward for his slashing speeches when in opposition. Recalling how Col. Sam Hughes declared that there was no danger of a submarine not being called to the surface with two such "hot air artists" as Right Hon. Winslow Spencer Churchill and himself on board, the writer says in conclusion, "It is not perhaps surprising that the artist who is also a 'character' should not hit it off with the British General."

MEXICO HAS HITCH OVER LARGE LOAN

Charged That the Best Offer of Financial Aid is Not the One Accepted

Mexico City, May 22. — The discussion of the remaining article of the bill authorizing an issue by the Mexican government of a loan of $100,000,000 at six per cent. has developed a hitch in the chamber of deputies which may delay the completion of the transaction. The charge was reiterated by many deputies at last night's session that the best offer for the loan had not been accepted by the Mexican government.

The assertion was made that the minister for war, General Manuel Mondragon, had negotiated a better offer. A resolution was adopted to call him to the chamber and ask him for a declaration on the subject.

At 10 o'clock last night deputies declared that the chamber would be in permanent session until the matter had been settled. Provisional President Huerta had in the meantime sanctioned the acceptance of the offer of a loan by French financiers, which had been agreed to yesterday by the members of the cabinet and also in principle by the deputies.

MRS. HENRY PETERS WEIGHED 600 POUNDS

Chicago, May 22. — Mrs. Henry Peters, weight 600 pounds, who for 20 years was exhibited as a freak, died last night at the county hospital following an operation for the removal of a growth which itself weighed 150 pounds.

No bed in the institution was strong enough to hold her, and the patient was laid crosswise on two beds, which were reinforced by chairs. A special coffin must be made for the body.

ASKS HALF MILLION IN COMMISSION SUIT

Toronto Court Hearing Action From Sale of Steel Process to Sir William Mackenzie

Toronto, Ont., May 22.—Do Mackenzie and Mann constitute the Canadian Northern railway. Have these two magnates individual enterprises? are the questions which arise out of the evidence given in the High Court yesterday in the $500,000 commission suit that M. J. Stewart, broker, has brought against R. J. Henderson for the sale of a patent steel manufacturing process ultimately sold to Sir William Mackenzie for $5,000,000. The plaintiff's claim is that the sale was the result of his introduction of the process to Sir Donald Mann and his associates.

The defence is that Mr. Stewart had no connection with negotiations that resulted in the sale to Sir William Mackenzie. On the other hand Mr. Stewart claims that in his dealings with Sir Donald Mann he was negotiating with him and his associates whether they were known as "Mackenzie and Mann," "The Canadian Northern," or whoever Sir Donald's associates might be. The cross-examination of Mr. Stewart brought out that the associates are different in one undertaking from those in another, and that the two heads, Mackenzie and Mann, are not partners in all things.

LIBERAL MEMBER FOR HALIFAX SPEAKS FOR TARIFF REDUCTION

A. K. Maclean Opens Budget Debate in House of Commons With Three-Hour Speech Dealing With Imperial Preference and Increasing Expenditure

Ottawa, May 22.—Hon. A. K. Maclean, Liberal member for Halifax, opened the debate on the budget in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. His speech occupied nearly three hours. He declared that the government showed every sign of being extravagant and naturally inclined to prodigality. His main contention was that in view of the large surplus in the hands of the government and the probable surpluses of the future, some steps should be taken to reduce the present burden of tariff taxation. This was doubly necessary, he said, owing to the rapid increase in the cost of living.

Mr. Maclean took up the matter of the duty on certain kinds of sawed planks which had formerly been free, but which this government had put under a 25 per cent duty. This had been called to the attention of parliament by the members for Assiniboia, who moved a resolution. It was then stated by the supporters of the government that the previous government had permitted smuggling of this article.

The member for Halifax then turned to the question of impartial preference which he discussed briefly. He did not think that there was much hope of a preference on natural products, judging by the latest utterances of Unionist leaders. They might be ready to give some sort of a valueless preference on manufactures.

He also criticized the fact that no further steps had been taken in the direction of appointing a tariff commission. He had never thought that it would be of any advantage to the country.

"The only question which is exercising the minister is how to get rid of the excess revenue," said Mr. Maclean. "So far this has not worried him. He should, however, not give in to all demands made upon him by ministers and members. He should put a brake on somewhere. When in opposition the Conservatives were never tired of talking of the big Liberal expenditures, and predicting disaster. What have they to say now in regard to increases in the expenditure since they came into power?"

The figures for the public works department, Mr. Maclean considered as remarkable. In 1910 the department spent $10,344,000. In 1913 the expenditure rose to $13,000,000. The proposed expenditure for the current fiscal year is $28,587,000, nearly three times as much as in 1910 and over twice as much as in 1912. The expenditure for the militia department in 1912, Mr. Maclean said, was $7,580,000. In 1913 it had risen to $8,907,000, while the proposed expenditure for 1914 is $10,500,000.

The figures of these two departments, Mr. Maclean said, were alarming, and worthy of the careful attention of parliament. When the Liberals were in power, Mr. Borden had stated that the expenditures were so large as to establish prima facie that the government stood convicted of the improper use of public money. What was to be said of a proposed expenditure of over $200,000,000, exclusive of railway subsidies which would probably bring the grand total up to $225,000,000.

Mr. Maclean declared that while he was not pessimistic as to the future, this was a year in which the minister of finance should have practiced economy. It is quite possible, owing to the tightness of money, a probable reduction in imports and the speculation of lands, that the immediate future may not be quite as bright as the immediate past.

Dealing with the question of surpluses, Mr. Maclean said that notwithstanding the conditions to which he had referred, the surplus of $55,000,000 over ordinary expenditure last year would probably amount to $85,000,000 or more for the current year. In view of such large surpluses, real and prospective, the government should have made a remission in taxation more particularly in view of the fact that the country is facing a new problem in the rapid and abnormal increase in the cost of living. Mr. Maclean remarked that there had been continued surplus since 1901.

Conservatives had always taken the position that it was indefensible, illogical and unbusiness like to take more revenue than was actually required for the expenditure of the country, as the point had now been reached in Canada, where there must either be the remission of taxation or else an abandonment of this previous theory and practice. In the past it had been customary to estimate the necessary expenditure of the year and then proceed to devise ways and means of meeting it. But now the necessity arose of devising ways and means of expending the general revenues. Such big surpluses were incentives to waste and political corruption.

Mr. Maclean referred to the bill for increasing Manitoba's subsidy, and the commission appointed to investigate British Columbia's claim along this line. The appointment of this commission, he said, was a sheer waste of the public's money and an insult to the intelligence of the country to appoint a commission to advise a supposedly responsible government on such a question. The appointment had been made simply to fulfill a promise made by Mr. Borden when in opposition, and would not have come had it not been that the government was in possession of a great surplus. Mr. Maclean criticized the inclusion of Z. A. Lash, of Toronto, among the commissioners holding policy.

Mr. Verille made a lengthy speech, devoted almost entirely to the question of the cost of living, presenting comparative figures of the cost of foods in Montreal, New York and Chicago during last June and July.

The figures produced showed that eggs, butter, cheese, flour, etc., were all cheaper in New York.

Comparative prices of vegetables showed 130 per cent. in favor of New York. Fruits were 90 per cent. in favor of New York, and Mr. Verville declared that, on the whole, prices in Montreal were 95 per cent. higher than in New York. This was in June and July, and the difference was even more marked in December.

Making comparisons between Montreal and Chicago, the latter being a western city, he said that there was a difference of 80 per cent. in favor of Chicago on vegetables and 18 per cent. on fruits.

H. B. Ames and W. F. Cockshutt were the other speakers, and F. B. Carvell moved the adjournment of the debate, the House rising at 11.15.

WEAR COTTON GLOVES IN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Dozen Girls Contract Poisoning From Germs in Returned Books

New York, May 22.—Books contaminated by germs picked up in various parts of the city are blamed for several cases of blood poisoning of girl librarians in the New York City Library, and in the last month a dozen girls have undergone treatment for mild forms of poison contracted from handling books. All the cases have been due to infection through a pin scratch or cut on the hand or face, although every precaution is taken daily by the library staff to guard against circulation of germ-laden books. Several of the librarians have adopted the idea of wearing cotton gloves whenever the nature of their work will allow them to do so. Some of the books come back to the libraries with pages so dirty and germ-laden that they have to be destroyed. This is one of the greatest causes of worry to the officials of the library and they constantly are on the alert to prevent the return of books to the branches after any communicable disease has developed in the home to which the book has been taken. Co-operation with the board of health brings to the library every day a complete list of all the houses reported. These lists are gone over and each branch library watches its district.

MESSAGE FOUND ON LAKE HURON SHORE

Goderich, Ont., May 22.—A slip of paper picked up by two boys on the shore of Lake Huron near the Point Clark lighthouse contains the following words written in pencil. "October 8th, 1912, gasoline launch Anna Bell, of Sarnia, sinking middle of Lake Huron, John, Archie and brother Tom Alward. Tell father good-bye."

The paper was in a tightly corked bottle.

FAMOUS LAND MARK GOES FOR SUBWAY

Astor House Where Webster and Other Famous Men Stayed Will Be Razed

New York, May 22.—One of the most famous of Knickerbocker landmarks will have passed away when the old Astor House, which has stood at Vesey and Broadway for the past seventy years, is razed to make way for the new subway. It has been said that more history has been made in this old block of gray weather-stained walls than any other building in Gotham, and possibly in the United States, with the exception of Independence hall in Philadelphia, and Faneuil hall in Boston. The Astor House was the rendezvous for many famous men in the ante-bellum days. The registers of this period bore the names of Daniel Webster, Franklin Pierce, Martin Van Buren, James Buchanan, William H. Seward, Rufus Choats, General Scott, President Lincoln, Stephen A. Douglas, Jefferson Davis and others equally notable.

Webster was always a more than welcome guest at the hotel; in fact, he might respectfully be referred to as a "star boarder," so many favors having been shown him. There existed an intimate bond of friendship between Webster and Charles A. Stetson, the proprietor of the hotel. When the former left for his last trip to his home in Marshfield his parting words to Stetson were: "Farewell, old friend. We have known and loved for more than thirty years."

Which is best? A coal that gets to work slowly, needs constant poking, keeps you standing over your stove on hot Summer afternoons, and then burns all the evenings, or a coal that lights at once, gets the oven hot in a few moments, burns brightly with a clear flame, needs no attention, does your cooking in half the time and leaves you free to enjoy the twilight hours?

HAPPENINGS IN GREAT METROPOLIS

LONDON UNDISTURBED BY CRISES THREATS

Is Very Bright Socially; Invasion of Oriental Potentates

(Special Correspondence.)

London, May 7.—Although the international situation is attracting much attention owing to the newspapers informing us early and often that we are on the edge of a crisis, the public is singularly undisturbed. Nervousness is only reflected in the city where the big financial houses are holding on to all the money they have got and even abstaining from issuing the Chinese loan which, much to everybody's relief, if not to everybody's satisfaction, has at last been signed. No one, however, expects an outbreak of fruther hostilities and while this view may be incorrect it is none the less general. In any case the allies are alone occupying public attention; about the position of poor old Turkey nobody troubles. Indeed, there is no reason why they should unless it be the fact that Turkey, so I hear, is now seriously preparing to develop Asia Minor.

Socially, London is very bright; the King held a very successful review of the Guards in Hyde Park last Saturday and I have not heard a word, save of enthusiasm regarding it, but then the Guards retain all their hold on the London public. His Majesty this week went to Newmarket where he won his first race, but they say that he has not his heart in it like his father, and he is much happier when he is touring the country studying industrial conditions. He enjoyed himself immensely in the potteries, and he is looking forward to a good time in Lancashire in July. The grave illness of the Duchess of Connaught, however, excites apprehension, since there is no doubt that in case of an unfortunate termination the court must go into mourning. If the Duchess pulls through it after two operations she must have a constitution of a lion. The opera is in full swing and the productions of the ring particularly when Nickisch had been conducting have been very much above the usual standard and this is not meant to be a backhanded compliment because some of the productions at the operas in time gone by have made me want to call out and weep bitterly. Forbes-Robertson is ending his season at the Haymarket and there are under altogether exceptionally favorable circumstances so far as the box-office receipts and the tributes of the public are concerned.

At the Globe Miss Ethel Irving has revived "Lady Frederick," which will easily run through the season, since it is a play which "made" her as a comedienne, while at the Strand a new farce called "The Chaperon," by Jocelyn Brandon and Frederick Arthur have seen the light. It deals with the troubles of a man who deputizes for a chaperon and I gather the audience must have enjoyed it immensely, because the critics who never like laughter, it being vulgar, feebly struggled to find some explanation for this deplorable lack of caste, they overlooked apparently the fact that the piece was funny. It is, though, I believe, to be very patronizing about a farce.

Recently an attempt was made to found a repertoire theatre at Croydon. Now the critic simply loves a repertoire theatre and he has done his best to give it a helping hand, but although it has produced pieces rather of the newer school and by the younger generation has not been up to the present a striking success. Still, now practically all the places of entertainment are doing well. The spring weather we are enjoying probably accounts for this in part, since there are no climatic influences to face at night. I should make one exception—London was swept by a tropical deluge on one evening this week, and those who know Whitehall will appreciate what the rain was when I mention that in places the thoroughfare was nearly under water.

Like the spring birds the Indian princes are now arriving in England and the Indian Office, which controls their movements, is in consequence very busy. Several have already put in an appearance and there are others to come. Thus the Maharaja Holkar of Indore is now staying in South Kensington, while the young Nawab of Bahawalpur has also arrived. Then there is the Thakur Sahib of Palitana, quite a nice boy, who acted as a royal page at Delhi to the Queen and who is much liked in royal circles, while the Nawab of Junagarh is also a visitor. Another arrival is the Raja of Narsingarh, also a youthful ruler, while an old stager in point of European visits, is the Raja of Pudukota. He seems to like England and while the knowledge is gratifying, I rather fancy he puts in quite enough time here for the benefit of his realm. Next we are promised a visit from the Maharaja Gaekwar of Baroda, the very nervous potentate who caused somewhat of a stir at the time of the Delhi Durbar, but who has western ideas and likes to keep them well up to date. The Aga Khan, that spiritual chieftain, is also returning to England and I suppose there is no one from the mid-East who acclimatizes himself quite as well to our very up-to-date civilization. These are some of them and there may be others, while I should not forget to mention the youthful scions from Thibet who are having a really good time. It would seem that the more youthful members of the reigning houses often go into the country until the fine weather comes and the season begins in earnest. One is staying at Minehead. It is currently reported that one or two more wanted to come to England, too, but that they had a judicious hint not to do so for the present. Still, they are popular visitors as regards shop-keepers of all kinds, for they spend money. It was only an African sovereign who never used to pay his bills.

TWENTY THOUSAND COMMISSION ASKED

HAMILTON REID BEING SUED BY JOSEPH COLE

Vancouver, May 22.—Claiming $20,000 commission for assisting Hamilton Reid, lately connected with the legal firm of Bowser, Reid & Walbridge, in negotiating the sale of the Indian reserve at Kitsilano from the tribe to the provincial government, Joseph Cole, through his solicitors, Farris & Emerson, issued a writ against Mr. Reid yesterday. Service was accepted in behalf of Mr. Reid by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, K. C., who will contest the suit.

Mr. Cole, in the endorsement on the writ, claims that the $20,000 was agreed upon between Mr. Reid and himself as his share for efforts in inducing the Indians to transfer their property. Mr. Cole also asks for an accounting in connection with the commission paid by the government to those instrumental in carrying through the deal. It is said that the total commission paid was $78,000, but among whom this was divided is not mentioned.

While H. O. Alexander, stipendiary magistrate, was acting on behalf of the government, it is believed that Mr. Cole, with Mr. Reid, was rendering service in seeing other Indians who would use their influence with the Kitsilano tribe to make them deliver the property to the government. Cole and the defendant, it is claimed, had several interviews with Chief Mathias and others, and, as a result, negotiations proved successful for the transfer.

THE SENATE'S OPPORTUNITY.

Our advices from Ottawa predict that the opposition in the Senate will move an amendment to the navy bill providing that the measure be submitted to the people. If this amendment is introduced it will carry, as the opposition has a large majority in the upper house. The government would, of course, reject the measure so amended, and then what? Six months ago in Montreal the Prime Minister, surrounded by his acclaiming followers, bravely declared that if parliament did not pass his naval proposals after reasonable discussion he would dissolve it and appeal to the people. But when he found that the opposition in the Commons was determined that the contribution bill should not pass, his banquet courage evaporated and instead of a dissolution and a fair fight in the country he loaded the dice and passed the measure under the gag.

The Senate majority will have every justification for introducing the suggested amendment. In the first place, the constitution as proposed is so radical a constitutional departure that it is only right and proper that the people should be permitted to record their verdict on it. Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir John Thompson and Sir Wilfrid Laurier time and again resisted the efforts that were made to induce Canada to make financial contributions to the Admiralty, and they were sustained in their resistance by the Canadian people. Before Mr. Borden rushes in where these great statesmen feared to tread he should be compelled to get his mandate from the country.

Then, again, the opposition in the Senate is familiar with the extraordinary conditions under which the bill was passed. The adoption of the closure—the changing of the rules in the middle of the game—is alone ample reason for the amendment which it is said will be introduced. The violations of every rule of fair play which have degraded parliament in the last few months are in themselves sufficient to vitiate the bill. We should never forget that when they applied the gag to the House of Commons Messrs. Rogers and Borden put an end to what we have been proud to proclaim as the last free parliament in the world.

The government press, very short-sightedly, is threatening all sorts of condign punishment to the Senate if the navy bill is amended along the lines suggested. Parenthetically we may point out that the same journals shrieked their applause when the Conservative majority in the Senate sixteen years ago threw out the bill which was designed by the then new Laurier administration to give Canada an all-Canadian railway route to the Yukon, a measure that would have made us independent of American transportation companies; that would have diverted to Canadian cities the immense business which built up Seattle and San Francisco. In those days they were not the exclusive champions of loyalty or Imperialism. They were the American party, who for partizan purposes played into the hands of the interests south of the boundary line.

The opposition in the Senate will not be intimidated by the threats of the anti-Canadian closurites. Now is the time for them to vindicate free speech and the right of the Canadian people to say whether their taxes shall be devoted to a purpose in which they have no voice; to say whether they will approve of a contribution instead of a Canadian navy and the construction of ships in Canada; whether they prefer that their ships shall be stationed at Gibraltar or used as the nucleus of fleet units for the protection of the Pacific and Atlantic coasts; whether they desire to assume the duties Australia has so manfully taken up or hire someone else to defend them. This is the Senate's opportunity. It will also show whether Mr. Borden has enough sand to make good his threat in Montreal six months ago and consult the people.

DROP IN THE BUCKET.

The supplementary estimates which we published yesterday contain the amounts to be expended by the federal government in the various provinces for roads under the Highways Act. These are as follows:

Ontario	$527,201
Quebec	481,449
Saskatchewan	102,889
Nova Scotia	102,870
Manitoba	95,196
British Columbia	82,005
Alberta	78,282
New Brunswick	73,524
Prince Edward Island	19,584

This apportionment, which has been made on the basis of population, is most inadequate as far as British Columbia is concerned. In no other province is road-making carried out under such enormous physical difficulties and in no other province are roads so urgently required. The bulk of the appropriation is given to those older and more generally settled provinces which are already relatively well supplied with highways, while the provinces of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, where road-making is a simple proposition, are more generously treated than British Columbia.

The sum of $82,005 is a mere drop in the bucket for this province. The provincial government expends millions annually, and although much of it is squandered, there is an irreducible minimum required which actually exceeds the entire outlay of $1,500,000 made by the federal government under its recent legislation. We are entitled to protest against the meagre allowance to be expended in this province, and it is the duty of the premier and those close to the Ottawa administration through party affiliations to remonstrate. One of the bases of our claim for better terms is the immense cost and difficulty of road-making here. How can we expect to establish our case in this particular if we admit that Manitoba and Saskatchewan are entitled to greater sums under the Highways Act than British Columbia? And we do make that admission when we allow the apportionment above shown to pass in silence.

OUR CELEBRATION.

To-morrow this city will begin its time-honored Victoria Day festivities, although the main programme will be carried out on Saturday. We believe the committee in charge of the arrangements has prepared a list of attractions that will sustain the high standard of excellence established many years ago. This celebration, more than any other, has come to be inseparably associated with Victoria, which delights to honor the memory of the great ruler who gave to it her name. It has become one of our most cherished traditions, and we should never allow it to depart from us.

We will be invaded by thousands of pleasure-seekers from neighboring cities, and we can welcome them on this occasion with especial pride because never before has Victoria been able to show such signs of abounding prosperity and marked progress as she can to-day. The oft-heard comment of days gone by, "Good celebration; but same old town," will never again fall from the lips of our visitors, and it is not alone the gala features that will make for their enjoyment.

Mr. Ames, the member representing the St. Antoine division of Montreal in the House of Commons, says circumstances will not permit a reduction of taxation in Canada for the present. Well, that is at least an interesting confession as well as a noteworthy apology for protection. It is quite different from the tone which characterized Mr. Ames's remarks before the election not only in Canada but in the United States. Then the demand was for higher protection—a tariff as high as Haman's gallows. Now the former advocates of protection are apologizing for the continuance of protection. No prophetic foresight is necessary to predict what the next step will be.

We are told that criticism of Mr. Borden's naval proposals injures the paper which makes it and the party it supports. In other words it is bad politics for a British Columbia paper to champion a Canadian navy, the construction of ships in Canadian waters and the establishment of a fleet unit on the Pacific. To say that we should not stoutly advocate these things because the government is making expenditures in other directions is not only supremely silly but betrays a moral obliquity which very few journals would care to exhibit. The Times believes the Borden policy is not in the interests of British Columbia, and therefore opposes it. We believe the Laurier proposals, providing for a fleet unit on thie coast and the construction of ships in our waters, is in the interests of the province, and we therefore support it. Our contemporary's attitude is contemptible and wholly sordid.

* * *

The Senate is threatened with divers pains and penalties if it does not pass the Navy Bill as it left the House of Commons under closure. Of course the Nationalist - Tory coalition cannot coerce the Senate, but it recognizes the position in which Premier Borden will be placed should the Senators reject or amend the bill. The opinion of the Tories of Canada is of little consequence, but what will the Imperialists of Britain think if the Premier should persist in clinging to office in the face of his pledge to appeal to the country "if immediate and effective aid" were not given the Empire in its alleged dire emergency?

* * *

We are told to look forward to a further increase in the price of meat in Victoria. A most pleasant prospect. But if that sort of thing actually occurs we shall all have to become vegetarians. The advocates of that cult say it conduces to longevity. Having a desire to live long in this in many respects highly favored land, we shall probably give the plan a trial. In the meantime why cannot we get our meat as well as our butter from Australia and New Zealand?

* * *

The Doukhobors in search of a Messiah bent their steps in the direction of Grand Forks, B. C., and left sadder but probably not wiser women and men. Now if these poor gropers after the unattainable had come to Victoria they would assuredly have discovered some one who would at least have essayed the Messianic role.

* * *

Says the Toronto Globe: "Deputy Speaker Blondin, the anti-British Nationalist who recently sought to arouse French-Canadian antipathy to Britain by reminding the habitants that it was necessary to shoot holes in the British flag to secure their liberty, is now busy at Ottawa forcing men like Dr. Michael Clark, a loyal Northumbrian and British to the core, to 'aid the motherland.' There has never been such another farce in Canadian history."

The secret of power, intellectual or physical, is concentration. — Ralph Waldo Emerson.

If we did but know how little some enjoy the great things that they possess, there would not be much envy in the world.—Young.

It is a part of the necessary theory of republican government that every class and race shall be judged by its highest types, not its lowest.—Thomas Wenworth Higginson.

No man can ever rise above that at which he aims.—A. A. Hodge.

The human heart is like a still stone in a mill; when you put wheat under it, it turns and grinds and bruises the wheat into flour; if you put no wheat, it still grinds on, and grinds itself away.—Luther.

COMMITTEE WILL MEET ASSOCIATION OFFICERS

Dr. Tolmie and George Sangster Will Attend Board of Trade Committee To-morrow

Almost concurrent with the Quarantine inquiry to-morrow morning, the Board of Trade's committee on manufacturers will meet to-morrow morning at 10.30 in conference with Dr. S. F. Tolmie and George Sangster, respectively the president and secretary of the Victoria Agricultural Association.

It might be surmised from the collusion that one of the first movements of the committee will be the organization of a first class "made-in-Victoria" exhibit for the Fall Fair. Whether it will be possible for the formation of a permanent exhibit would depend largely on the public interest in the matter, and more particularly on the extent of the co-operation of the various manufacturers in the city.

It has been remarked in the Board of Trade on more than one occasion that a great many of the enterprises which are now operating in this city are really little known to the general public, and this wil no doubt prove a good opportunity for the manufacturers to come forward and show just what can be done in Victoria.

On inquiry at some of the mill offices this morning, the Times representative found that the owners were prepared to co-operate heartily in the scheme, and it is expected that some beautiful patterns of local work in woodwork, house construction and office furnishings will be forthcoming at the next fair.

Railway Company has given an order for 15,000 tons of steel rail to the well known firm of Evans, Coleman & Evans and the first shipment is to be delivered at Newport, Howe Sound in October next and the order is to be completed by June 1914. The purchase of rolling stock is also being arranged for to the amount of about $400,000.

o o o

House Raided.—In continuation of their efforts to clean up the city, Detectives Edens and Heather last night raided a house at 792 Topaz avenue and in police court this morning D. O. Rose was charged with keeping a disorderly house and three women were charged with being inmates. They were all remanded until to-morrow. They had only moved into the house on May 15.

o o o

Police Prepare for Holiday.—Unlike former years Chief Langley will not allow any of his men to go outside the city limits on May 24, his staff being too short. No extra men will be employed either, but all the members of the force will do extra shifts to assist in handling the big holiday crowds. Saanich and Esquimalt will look after the Gorge crowds, special constables have been engaged for the purpose, by those municipalities.

A LINE O' CHEER EACH DAY O' TH' YEAR

By John Kendrick Bangs

OUT OF BONDAGE.

He rises most who rises from his bond.
He bravest is who knoweth not despond,
To break the shackles of a pressing care
Call for a strength and for a courage rare,
And life the sweeter is for all its pains
To him who's nobly risen from his chains.

"INTRODUCE ME" HERE

Miss Della Clarke Gives Her Play at Victoria Theatre.

So far as can be ascertained from the programme nobody but Miss Della Clarke risked a reputation on the four-act comedy, entitled "Introduce Me" which was performed at the Victoria Theatre last night. Miss Della Clarke admits being the author and the star, and nobody else admits being the producer, so it would appear that Miss Clarke has that to be responsible for also.

"Introduce Me" was intended as a defense of women writers.

The story of the play was about a young married woman whose husband was an unrecognized literary genius, and who, unknown to her husband, wrote books under a false name. She claimed that the proceeds were an allowance from a wealthy aunt up state.

The husband despised women writers and especially this woman writer. One day, however, he was called upon to dramatize one of her novels called "Susan" and the study of the book disclosed to him that this woman was a genius.

The story of Susan was evidently very much the story of "Introduce Me" and the husband was enthusiastic about the unselfish little wife who supported her husband by writing, and when he learned that his own wife was the author and that the book was a story of her own experiences he gained a new appreciation of the merits of his spouse, and of women writers.

"Introduce Me" is also by a woman writer.

One's respect for women writers as writers gains nothing, however, from the production.

ARION CLUB TO SING.

Twenty-First Year of Pioneer Musical Organization Concluding With Concert on Tuesday.

The Arion Club is this month completing the twenty-first year of its existence, and is giving its third concert of the season at the Victoria theatre on Tuesday evening next, May 27. A well-arranged and varied programme of club numbers has been diligently rehearsed for some time past, and will include several request numbers. Two of the club selections will be accompanied by an orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Turner, violinist, these being "The Bugle Song," by Dudley Buck and "Moonrise," by Pache. These are both charming compositions, and with the club and orchestra combined will no doubt give pleasure to the audience.

The club on this occasion will be assisted by Miss Jardine-Thomson, a dramatic soprano, who possesses a voice of rare strength and purity, and who has apeared in St. James' hall, London, at Lord Strathcona's reception on Dominion Day in London, and also at the leading musical centres of the world.

Miss Thomson will contribute four numbers to the programme, and in three of these she will give groups of Old English songs of the periods of 1760 and 1860, and will render these in the costumes of those times.

JAMES FAWN'S DAUGHTERS WITH THE "VERSATILES."

The "Versatiles" who open their summer season at Stadacona park, which by the way makes an ideal summer garden, have been augmented by an entire Old Country company of al fresco artistes including the two daughters of that very popular old English comedian, James Fawn, whom many Victorians will no doubt remember.

The Misses Harriet and Edith Fawn have just concluded a two-years engagement in South Africa with Messrs. Adler and Suttons "Kerry Mascots" as also have two other Versatiles (i.e. Miss Rene Ray and Mr. Charles Cardel.)

Frank Wood, the well known comedian and author composer of such well known songs as "Down Where the Breezes Blow," "My Wife's Cake," etc., is also included in the cast of the "Versatiles" of 1913.

The opening performance is billed for Victoria Day, 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. A Willows or Oak Bay car will take you the necessary ten blocks. •

HALF-HOLIDAY FRIDAY

School Children to Be Taught Meaning of Empire Day by Programme in Morning.

The significance of Empire Day is to be impressed upon the school children of Victoria to-morrow. In the morning patriotic exercises have been prepared by the teachers of all the classes in the various schools for the purpose of bringing home to the children the reality of the British Empire, its history, growth, magnitude, essential unity and common purpose as well as the privileges, responsibilities and duties of its citizenship. As soon as this programme is concluded school will be adjourned for the afternoon and the annual field day of games will be held at Oak Bay in the afternoon.

Coronation Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, composed of 2,500 school children, will visit the Old English Fair at the Arena during the afternoon in a body.

LARGE TOTAL FROM CHINESE POLL TAX

Sum of $344,500 Has Been Contributed by 689 Chinese in Present Month

Under the poll tax during the present month the local immigration department agency has taken the sum of $344,500 from Chinese immigrants, off six vessels.

In the past five days there have been no less than three steamers from the Orient, all bringing large numbers of Chinese, namely, the Empress of Japan, Seattle Maru and Yokohama Maru, hence the enrichment of the coffers of the department of the interior to the extent named.

These figures represent 689 individual cases, and show that the returns for Chinese immigration are more than maintaining the record set in the past, and are a tribute to the attraction of British Columbia and of other parts of Canada to a lesser extent, for the Chinese population of the Celestial republic.

The immigration agent is informed to-day, by an amended order in council, that not only no licensed person may take fees from an immigrant, but no company, firm or person, which is absolutely comprehensive and prevents any intelligence office fraud on the newcomer to the country.

This circular is destined further to regulate the mischievous results which have accrued through advantages being taken of the immigrant's ignorance.

FOG POWER ALARM ON FISGUARD ISLAND

No application has yet been made to the department of marine and fisheries for the establishment of a fog power alarm on Fisguard island, according to Capt. George Robertson, the agent, but he says it would be a very desirable place, as a complement to the lighthouse which was built by the Imperial government on the island in 1860.

WILL REBUILD C.P.R. REPAIR SHOPS

Reconstruction of the Burned Belleville Street Buildings to Start Soon

In about two months' time the Canadian Pacific steamship officials look for the rebuilding of the carpenters' shop and repair works on the Belleville street wharves, which were destroyed by fire recently.

Plans are now being prepared, and the work will be commenced as soon as convenient, in order that facilities may exist for any minor work to the Princesses, and other smaller vessels of the B. C. Coast service. A pneumatic air compressor and power machinery, as well as the customary lathes, etc., will be installed in the new premises when they are rebuilt.

The officials in the past have found the shops very useful for urgent repair work.

Evans, Coleman & Evans, local agents for the Maple Leaf line, state that the Anna arrived at La Union on May 13, and should berth here about June 5. The Arna is a Norwegian vessel, Capt. Jentoft, under charter to this line.

REACH COMPROMISE ON STEVEDORING WORK

Agreement Covering Local and Puget Sound Ports Will Be Signed

A compromise arrangement has been reached, it is stated on good authority, between the representatives of the British Columbia Marine Association and the Longshoremen's Association, which will avoid industrial trouble and result in a working agreement. The agreement will cover the individual necessities of each port on this side of the line and the Puget Sound ports, and so avoid friction which was threatened.

The advance in pay which the Longshoremen sought has not been conceded in full, but the representatives of the union have accepted a lower figure as a fair basis of settlement. The terms of work will, it is understood, also show an alteration. Necessary papers binding on all parties will be signed up in the course of the next few days.

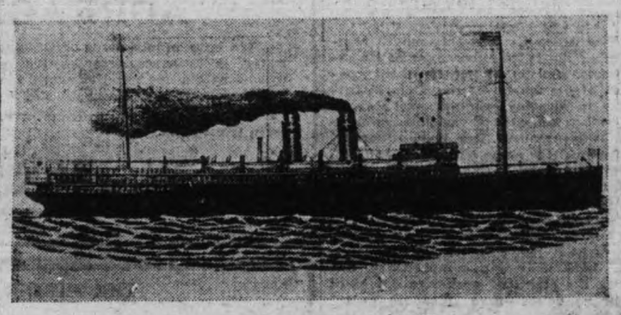
TRIESTE SERVICE IS CASE OF SQUABBLE

Hamburg, May 22.—The newspaper "Cester Reichische Volkewirt" has the following note on the squabbles regarding the Canadian service for Trieste. This paper is a thick and thin supporter of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company interests, and says in part: "Rate cutting in the Canadian-Trieste service continues, and as reduction succeeds reduction each of the two parties throw the blame upon the other."

"The shipping pool, and the Canadian Pacific railway have reached an understanding on the immigration service from Trieste, and the delay of putting it into force is due to the differences of opinion within the pool, which is regarded as being under the influence of the Canadian Pacific railway. Under the settlement that has been reached between the pool and the Canadian Pacific railway the new Canada-Trieste line will be run as a pool line."

The two companies will run boats alternately on the service, and running expense will be regulated on a certain scale, and profit and loss will be distributed over the whole membership of the pool, but in such a way that the share of the Austro-American Company will be two and a half per cent. The Canadian Pacific railway agrees not to carry Russian immigrants to travel via Austria.

COMING TO COAST



PACIFIC COAST STEAMSHIP COMPANY'S NEW STEAMER CONGRESS

Which will enter the service between Seattle and San Francisco this summer. The Congress was launched recently in New York and will leave the Atlantic Coast for San Francisco in July arriving in August.

LORD LONSDALE WILL COME TO PACIFIC PORTS

The Portland agents of the Danish East Asiatic line have been informed that the Lord Lonsdale has been chartered by that company for this trade, and will commence taking on freight at Copenhagen next month to leave for the Pacific coast in the latter part of the month. The Lord Lonsdale is of 2,895 tons net register, and will bring 8,000 tons of freight to this coast, discharging it at San Pedro, San Francisco, Portland and Puget Sound.

She belong to J. Herron & Co., of Liverpool, and she was launched from the yards of W. Hamilton & Co., at Glasgow, in 1911. The Lord Lonsdale is classed as a modern freighter.

NEWS OF SHIPPING FROM SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, May 21.—The St. Helens will be the first steamer out for Nome from this port. She leaves to-day for a number of Alaskan ports, carrying a full cargo of freight, but no passengers.

The cruiser Maryland got away yesterday for Bremerton. She will remain on the Sound but a short time, proceeding thence to Alaska.

Balfour, Guthrie & Co., announce that they have chartered the British steamer Manchester Citizen for lumber from the Columbia River to Calcutta. The vessel is now at Manila and will probably load sugar there for this port.

The British steamer Queen Maud, whose charter was reported yesterday will load lumber at San Francisco, Eureka and Puget Sound for Australia. She will take on the first part of her cargo here, coming direct from Valparaiso.

The Peruvian barque Alliance, now at Iquiqui, has been chartered by Comyn, Mackell & Co. for lumber to the West Coast. She is chartered to load on Puget Sound, Gray's Harbor or the Columbia River.

The barquentine Irmgard arrived from Papeete yesterday. The vessel has been purchased by Atkins & Kroll and is running regularly between this port and Tahiti in conjunction with the barquentine S. N. Castle.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of the lowest low water in each month of the year. This level is half a foot lower than the datum to which the soundings on the Admiralty chart of Victoria harbor are reduced.

The hydographic survey vessel Lillooet having finished coaling, will leave to-morrow on departmental business.

FISHING BEGINS IN QUEEN CHARLOTTES

Secrecy is Maintained About Whale Captures This Season

Fishing is commencing off the west coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands, according to Captain Wearmouth, of the Prince John, which will get away from port to-night. The spring salmon are beginning to run and the Wallace and Doughty fishing interests are starting up operations for the summer.

The captain of the Grand Trunk Pacific steamer said that at Prince Rupert half the capacity of the big cold storage plant is occupied with fish, which are ready for shipping.

A number of survey parties are going into the Charlottes for coal and mineral explorations, taking plant and machinery for operating claims where some preliminary work has already been accomplished.

Little news is leaking out with regard to the whaling industry at Rose Harbor and Naden Harbor, and while in the past it has been possible to learn something of how the catch of sulphurs and sperms is going on during the season, this year as on the west coast of this island nothing is going out to the public on progress so far on the season's captures.

The Prince Rupert also left port this morning, and Capt. McKenzie will have a large passenger list for the north. Among the passengers from Victoria went W. O. Brett, H. C. Kingham, J. D. Moore, G. J. Jones, W. Lorimer, H. Werth and W. E. Davidson.

INTERCEPTS STEAMER, CAPTAIN JOINS BABY

Seattle, May 22.—"The baby is ill and I would like to have my husband home to-night."

This message was received over the telephone at the office of the shipping firm of W. F. Swan & Company, in the Grand Trunk Pacific dock, Tuesday. It came from Mrs. E. D. Hickman, wife of Capt. Hickman master of the steamer Jeanie, bound from Alaska ports for Tacoma, and Mr. Swan was on the wire. There could be no excuse of lack of authority to divert the vessel from her course, and the head of the shipping firm told Mrs. Hickman that her request would be granted.

However, the Jeanie has no wireless and her captain's orders were to go direct to Tacoma. There was only one way to intercept the vessel and that was to dispatch a launch to meet her off West Point light. Mr. Swan soon had Roy Lillico, of the Lillico Launch & Towboat Company on the wire, and in a few minutes the launch Iskum was making all haste down the Sound. The message was delivered to Captain Hickman and he put in at the G. T. P. dock, where he was relieved by Captain James Daniels, who hurried to the pier at the request of Mr. Swan, and took the Jeanie to Tacoma.

Little Miss Cossette Hickman, one year old, who, Captain Hickman said, was the healthiest baby in the world, had caused all the trouble.

RUMORED ARRANGEMENT

The London Shipping Gazette is authority for the statement that J. H. Welsford, of Liverpool, has effected an arrangement with the Hamburg-American line for the purpose of placing some of the Welsford liners and those of the German company in a new concern, with a capital of $2,500,000.

The intention of the new concern is to exploit the trade of the northern Pacific ports with the United Kingdom, and the continent. Of recent months the Hamburg-American interests have acquired a number of large cargo steamers of good power, suitable for this class of trade. As the coming sphere of commercial activity, the Pacific trade with the opening of the Panama canal will result in abundant business for this class of traffic.

CHINESE HAVE CEASED TO DISCRIMINATE

Do Not Refuse to Travel on Japanese Steamers; Oriental Rate Wars

One phase of the change in the Japanese trans-Pacific shipping is passed over often without note, and that is the manner in which the Chinese are now willing to travel by Japanese boats, at which at one time they looked askance. The number on each vessel which puts into Victoria is large, and all go to swell the revenue under the head tax.

The rate war between the British and Japanese lines engaged in the gunny trade from the Far Eastern ports to Calcutta continues, and the Nippon Yusen Kaisha maintains a service between Japan and Calcutta which cuts into the British India Company's business. The merchants of Calcutta want legislation enacted which will cut Japanese ships out of the trade between Indian and colonial ports, like Hongkong and Singapore. The Osaka line has inaugurated a line to Bombay to take some share of the cotton trade. This proposed shut-out from the Indian trade would be the same as exists with regard to British lines in Japanese ports.

The extension of Japanese lines, notably the Nippon Yusen, is due to the fact that in September the present Japanese government subsidies will be modified, and grants to large steamers journeying over 1,000 miles will be abolished in favor of a system of subsidies to services rather than to ships. So the companies are encouraged to strike out into the deep sea trade in competition with European and American owned vessels.

HEAD LIGHTS

On their 3,500 mile canoe trip to Alaska and down the Yukon river, Arthur D. Simpson and Forrest Clark, of San Diego, put into Oak Bay yesterday from Seattle. They will continue their perilous journey to-morrow. They have made 113½ miles of their course in six days. Thirty-one miles was the most made at anyone time during the first section of the long trip.

The Kobe Herald states that the patients on the Monteagle, who have again involved the Canadian Pacific liner in the quarantine regulations on her eastbound journey, are the third mate and ship's carpenter. No further cases developed at Yokohama.

As was foreshadowed in the Times when the Princess May left this port on Monday night for the North, upon arrival at Vancouver some of the freight had to be displaced to find room for a share from that port. The remainder will be taken north, probably on the Princess Ena.

The Yokohama Maru brings word that the S. S. Etoro Maru, of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha Company, which left Yokkaichi on May 2 for Kobe, collided with the S. S. The Hamburg-American liner Sithonia got away from the Sound for Hamburg via the Orient last evening with nearly 8,000 tons of freight, 6,000 tons of flour being taken at Portland, and 500,000 feet of lumber at Astoria. The balance of the freight, which includes over four thousand crates of potatoes for the Philippines, was taken on in Seattle.

A Few Interesting Facts About "Weiler's" Steel Ranges

1. It has been built specially to our order, to meet the local fuel conditions. Soft coal requires a specially constructed firebox, also special draft and flue provision before really good results are to be had. That's one important feature—rarely seen in other ranges—that is embodied in the "Weiler" ranges.

2. The hot blast fire back insures perfect combustion, saves fuel, and as the linings have an air space behind, overheating is prevented.

3. The oven has many good features. Its construction insures durability, it is dust and gas proof, and being ventilated with fresh heated air there's no chance of food "drying out."

4. Flues, outer walls and all other parts that retain the heat are lined with extra heavy asbestos millboard.

Rivets hold parts together, and perfect fitting replaces the putty method of jointing.

Call and inspect them and you'll be well satisfied.

The construction of the burner is largely responsible for the saving, then the mixer being made of specially treated cast iron, perfect combustion insures the best use being made of the gas burned.

VICTORIA AMATEURS WILL LINE UP STRONGEST TEAM

Dad Turnbull is Bringing Over Strongest Team for Saturday's Lacrosse Feature; Officials Appointed

With the exception of Angus McInnis, who will be out of the game for some time with a broken collar bone, the Victoria amateurs will trot out the same team that secured a moral victory over the Mann cup holders on Saturday, when they meet the New Westminster amateurs at the Royal Athletic park. Manager Sam Lorimer had his entire squad out last night, and the final workout will be held this evening, when the team will be chosen.

Stan. Okell is back with the team and he will be used if necessary, but as he has had but a few practices he does not feel that it would be right for him to go into the game so early in the season.

Word has been received from New Westminster that the Salmon Bellies are bringing over the fastest team that has represented the Royal City in the amateur ranks for a number of years. Dad Turnbull has charge of the club this year, and he is making a real team out of the material he has on hand. The Westminster club have always been a stumbling block for the locals, but Manager Lorimer is out after the Mann cup this year and does not intend to let the Royals slip one over the Victoria club through the locals being too confident.

W. Dinsmore and H. Jesse will handle the game, which will start at 4 o'clock, the baseball game being billed for 1.45 p.m. Cyril Baker will play, though he is still under medical care as a result of a bad crack over the left eye received last week in practice.

Bob Dewar and Freddie Cullin will referee the first professional game of the season at New Westminster next Saturday. Lester Patrick and Leo Sweeney will officiate in the game scheduled for May 31 on local grounds.

Next Saturday the New Westminster amateurs will be playing in Victoria while the Vancouver and Westminster pros. are battling in the Royal City.

The Vancouvers have practically decided on the line-up for the holiday game. Benedict is sure to be in the flags. Griffith will play point again with West, Pickering, Ion and Pringle in front of him.

ODDS SHORTEN.

English Poloists Showing Excellent Practice Form.

New York, May 22.—Odds on the American polo team for the coming international matches against the English four at Meadowbrook are rapidly shortening. The 3-to-1 odds prevailing against the challengers a month ago have shortened to 8 to 5, and shrewd followers of the game are predicting that even money will be in order for the first game.

COLLEGE FEATURE.

Seattle, May 22.—The first inter-collegiate race on Lake Washington in two years will be rowed this afternoon at 5 o'clock. The state university championship eight and the crew from the University of California will pull three miles to settle coast aquatic differences. Washington is the favorite as she has one victory over the visitors this season.

TEAMS SELECTED FOR BIG SERIES

Australians Will Stop Off at Victoria in the Fall to Meet Junior Clubs

R. B. Benjamin announced last night that the Australians will stop off at Victoria on their return from their tour in the fall and will play a team composed entirely of young Victoria cricketers. The latter will be allowed to use twenty-two players, while the Australians will feature their regular eleven. Crawford Coates will select the Victoria team, and he will have to figure on the performances of the youngsters during the summer. Mr. Benjamin states that this is the plan followed out in Australia to develop young cricketers, and looks for increased interest among the younger enthusiasts.

KANTY HEAVED WONDERFUL BALL

Four Home Runs Feature Yesterday's Win Over Indians; Score 11 to 1

A few more niches in the Northwestern League's hall of fame were filled yesterday at the ball yard when the Flying Dutchman, pitching his second victory in three days, allowed the Spokane crew but five dinky little hits and held the Indians to one run. Kantlehner twirled his best game of the season and had everything, passing but one man, which was a complete reversal of his performance on Monday, when he almost tossed the game away through his generosity in handing out free tickets to first.

Alberts' Two Homers.

Kanty did what was required of him, but let us introduce another Redskin hater, who was very prominent in yesterday's combat, one Charlie Alberts. This diminutive twirler is filling in right field. Filling? If Mr. Alberts can produce a better brand of goods the fans would be very grateful to the gentleman if he will uncover a better assortment. However, the former Sacramento slab artist punched out two home runs, both with men on the sacks and broke Toners' heart with his four-ply wallop. Alberts made a big bid for another, but drove a mile high to the infield.

Others Star Also.

The above pair did not monopolize the calcium for Charlie Swain and Mike Lynch also hammered the cork centre out of the lot, bringing the Bees' total to ten, a double and a single score, with another in the eighth. The Indians were helpless under such a fusilade, Toner being dericked in the fifth to make room for Reisberg, who was badly walloped in the seventh. It was one heavy sticking day for the Bees and they took every advantage of the weak pitching to which they were opposed.

Shea Shows Nerve.

It was the second time that Red Toner has essayed to win a game from the Bees this week and once again Kanty came through with flying honors. He received perfect support, Harry Meek playing a very useful game at first. The entire team was batting well, Kanty himself delivering a triple and a single, while Lamb had a couple of doubles. Credit is also due Danny Shea, who caught a really wonderful game considering the mushy condition of a finger which he had split at Portland last week. Shea had Kanty working in fine style and had the team chattering as never before.

* * *

Kurfuss' liberality in the third inning, accompanied by poor support by the Tacoma infield, enabled Portland to score the only runs made yesterday in the game. The final score was 3-0.

* * *

Schmutz, the spitball artist of the Beavers, hooked up with Charley Fullerton, of Seattle, in one of the greatest pitching duels ever witnessed around Vancouver, Vancouver finally nosing the league leaders by a score of 1-0.

Pitcher Northrup, who was turned over to Moosejaw by the Vancouver Club, pitched a non-hit, no-run game against Medicine Hat last Friday.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Victoria Now in Third Place.

Playing the kind of ball that the Bees have shown during the past few days at the Royal Athletic park, there is no reason why Lynch's Larrupers should not be banging away with the league leaders before the end of next week. The Bees have three more games with Spokane and should win at least two of these, while next week they play Tacoma. From the manner in which the Portland club it whipping the Tigers, the Bees ought to climb another notch during their stay in McGinnityville. Vancouver will take a few more games from Seattle, and this will keep the leaders within hailing distance. The race in the Northwestern League is not going to be a two-horse affair by any means. Lynch is now in a position to go right after the leaders, and that he will do so goes without saying.

Australian Visit Will Help Cricket in the Capital.

There is no doubt but that the visit of the Australian cricket eleven will boost the sport in Victoria, and, with three matches arranged for next week, record crowds are looked for. The Australians deserve every support and the fact that they waived their guarantees to play several matches in this city should help the attendances. Cricket such as the Australians play is the best in the world, and Victorians are decidedly lucky in being favored with three matches. The decision of Manager Benjamin to have his team take the field next September against twenty-two Victoria youngsters, in an effort to encourage the juniors, is another move that will popularize the visit of the Antipodean eleven.

Westminster Amateurs Appear Here on Saturday.

Though Victoria won the majority of games from Westminster's amateur lacrosse twelve last year, Dad Turnbull, the famous veteran, is authority for the statement that the Royal City club will win not only the Victoria games this year, but also the championship. Westminster has not been very prominent in amateur lacrosse for the past few years for the simple reason that all their attention has been devoted towards the retention of the Minto cup. Now, however, Alex. Turnbull has taken the youngsters in hand, and he promises to develop a winner. Victoria should have captured last Saturday's game against the V. A. C., but they were robbed of a fairly earned win. Sam Lorimer's twelve are confident that they can win over the Westminster team, and the odds are for the locals to emerge with the long end of the score.

Bayley Will Win from Barrieau on Holiday.

Though the Terminal City dopesters can see nothing but a win for Barrieau, those who are well acquainted with the champion's condition will back Bayley for any amount. The title-holder was never in the condition that he is in at the present, and that he will win before the limit is the one best bet. Jimmie Britt cannot speak too highly of Bayley, and his opinion should be worth something, seeing that Bayley led him a merry gallop for six rounds yesterday afternoon at the V. A. C.

VICTORIA GOLF STAR A WINNER

J. S. Matterson Captures Medal at P. N. G. A. Meet for Low Score

Butte, Mont., May 22.—The opening day's play in the Pacific Northwest Golf Association championships returned J. S. Matterson, of the Victoria Golf Club, winner of the qualifying round with a 78-86—164 medal score for the two rounds, with Barker, the Butte champion, close up with an 81-85—166 strokes. Matterson's form and that displayed by Bob Johnstone, the Seattle Golf Club professional, in a match play, causes these two golfers to be fancied as probable winners of the amateur and open championships, respectively.

In the stroke competition for the ladies' championship qualifying round, Mrs. Earle, a newcomer to Butte, returned the fine score of 91. Mrs. Barker, the local champion, was ten strokes behind.

Mr. Hughes won the cup presented to the Spokane representatives for the lowest medal score on the qualifying round, the trophy presented by T. S. Lane, who was responsible for the large attendance of Spokane players at the championship tournament.

Miss Opitz won the ladies' putting cup offered for the men. These cups are presented for daily competition.

Sixty starters appeared in the men's qualifying round, with thirty-two to qualify for the championship flight on the thirty-six holes play. Fine weather prevailed, particularly in the morning, but a strong wind made low scoring impossible in the afternoon round.

Matterson had a fine round of 78 in the morning, and but for a missed drive at the sixth tee, which cost him six strokes for the hole, and several missed putts he would have broken the local records.

The result of the stroke competition shows, among the lowest scores, the following:

Matterson, 164; Barker, 166; Macan, 169; Griggs, 172; Hughes, 173; Carr, 173; Daniels, 174; Doran, 176; Findlay, 177; McCrimmon, 179; Sales, 182; Witherspoon, 184.

CRAGANOUR WON.

Derby Favorite Carries Off Newmarket Stakes.

London, May 22.—The Newmarket Stakes were run yesterday over a half-mile course at Newmarket, and resulted in a win for the Derby favorite, F. Bower Ismay's bay colt Craganour, by Desmond-Veneration II., which started at 3 to 1. Joel's chestnut colt, Sun Yat, by Sundridge Angelic, starting at 100 to 6 was second; while W. Raphael's bay colt Louvois, by Isinglass St. Lovin, 10 to 2, was third. Craganour came in three and a half lengths ahead of Sun Yat, while Louvois was a half-length behind Sun Yat. Louvois, for a time, was co-favorite with Craganour in the betting for the Derby.

London, May 22.—By defeating Jacp Daw, Stedfast and five others in the Burwell Stakes at Newmarket yesterday August Belmont's Tracery established himself as champion 4-year-old of the English turf. Tracery won in easy fashion. During his short racing career, Mr. Belmont's colt has never been out of first three. In his initial appearance last season he finished third to Lagalse in the Derby.

SPORTING NEWS (CONTINUED)

SWAIN WILL PLAY FIRST BASE NEW OUTFIELDER FOR BEES

Nordyke Turned Down; Cohen Will Strengthen Team; McGinnity Lands First-Sacker

"We expect to have another outfielder here before the end of the week and have refused Lou Nordyke's terms to play first base. Charlie Swain will go over to the initial station as soon as Bert Delmas gets back into the game, but Alberts will be kept in right field until our new outfielder arrives," was the statement handed out by Manager Mike Lynch to the Times this morning. Nordyke wired last night, asking the earth to take Brook's place and he was turned down. The locals are not worrying any and will retain their resent line-up until some of the injured players get back into the game.

McMurdo Benched.

Many changes are being made in the different club and Victoria is not the only team that is shifting her players. Bob Brown has benched Spot McMurdo and is playing Heister on third, while Dode Brinker is in the outfield. Brown has signed on Jimmy Concannon, whom McGinnity released and expects to have Clarke back in a few days. Clarke was purchased by the White Sox last fall but refuses to report, so Brown got him re-instated and has offered him a contract.

Cohen announces that he will have Short Stop Hardston when his team returns home and other changes are probably. The Indians have not been winning the games that they should cop, and Cohen figures that it is about time for a shakeup. Covaleski will twirl to-day against Smith, who is about right for a win.

Mike Lynch figures that Victoria can cop second place before the end of next week, and here's hoping that he isn't wrong in his prophecy. A clean sweep from Spokane and another at Tacoma will certainly help a lot towards this position.

It is just possible that Spokane will transfer a series to Victoria, and President Wattelet states that every one of Victoria's 65 scheduled games will take place at the Royal Athletic park. This will be good news as home grounds count about 10 per cent. in baseball.

Gradually McGinnity is getting rid of the Victoria cast offs. Jimmy Concannon goes to Vancouver, while Lou Nordyke goes into the discard. The former first sacker has lost his batting eye and the Iron Man decided to replace him.

Rex. Devogt, former Spokane backstop, has been sold by the Boston Nationals to the Boston club of the International League. He is a little on the small side for the majors.

On Monday afternoon, at the ball park, two ball teams from the Pacific Club will battle for the club title. Many prominent business men will take part, and the struggle is sure to attract a huge crowd.

Joe McGinnity, manager of the Tacoma Tigers, has purchased First Basemen Holderman, formerly with the Tacoma team, from Pittsburg. Holderman was obtained by the Seattle club last year from Aberdeen. He was transferred to Tacoma, where he played such good ball that Pittsburg drafted him.

TIRED OF BERMUDA

New York, May 22.—The New York Americans will not train in Bermuda again. The extremely warm weather and the dampness there is believed to have caused a reaction when the players returned to begin operations in the colder climate here.

This was the statement of President Frank Farrell, who is back in the city after a trip to Chicago. Mr. Farrell said Manager Chance could give no other explanation of why his pitchers have been suffering from sore arms and lame backs since the opening of the season than the effect of the climatic changes. Despite the poor showing of the Yankees, President Farrell had only praise for Chance.

"With our pitchers terribly crippled and a big gap at short field, I think Chance is working miracles on the western trip," he said. "We are on the lookout for new men, but desirable ones are hard to obtain."

BAYLEY BOXES JIMMY BRITT

Champion Winds Up Preparations for Holiday Bout at Vancouver

Six rounds of the fastest and most scientific boxing ever seen in Victoria was served up to a mere handful of spectators at the Victoria Athletic Club gymnasium yesterday afternoon when Jimmy Britt, former lightweight champion of the world and Joe Bayley, the Canadian title-holder, stepped into the ring. The bout was intended to be a mere workout for the Victoria boy, but it developed into a real battle. Bayley's stock received a big boost as a result of his showing against Britt.

The 'Frisco boy unhesitatingly placed his stamp of approval upon the local boxer. He remarked Bayley needed but the experience to give him the ranking with Ritchie, Rivers and the rest of the top notchers and thought that with careful schooling that Bayley would be a real world's champion in a short time.

AS SEEN FROM THE PRESS BOX

Four in a row is not so bad.

• • •

Alberts, the new right fielder, will put Jack O'Brien to the bad if he continues to clout those homers.

• • •

Toner was quite peeved when the Bees took a lead.

• • •

Danny Shea caught yesterday with a smashed finger, and the way he worked Kanty was a treat.

• • •

Meek put his bat behind his back and dared Toner to stick one over the pan in the seventh. Toner was scared.

• • •

"Sting'um" was at the game again yesterday.

• • •

Kanty had perfect control, passing but one man.

• • •

The Bees are nearing the top of the list in team batting.

• • •

Albert's second homer went into the North Ward park. This is probably the longest hit registered on the local diamond this season.

• • •

It looked as though the Indians were going to have a batting rally when they registered three hits in a row, but Kanty, tightened, and Spokane's hopes were gone.

New York, May 22.—Vincent Astor is now owner of the fastest fifty-five foot motorboat in American waters. The craft developed yesterday in its trial trip a speed of more than thirty-two miles an hour and is capable of thirty-five miles an hour if pushed to the limit.

ENTRIES CLOSED FOR GYMKHANA

Nearly Four Hundred Listed; Flat Race Is a Feature

Many outside entries will feature the Victoria Day Gymkhana, which is to be held under the auspices of the Victoria Polo Club at the Willows track. Secretary Metcalfe stated this morning that it had been necessary to close the lists, as the entries were but a few short of the four hundred mark, and that it would be impossible to accommodate any more.

Morning Parade.

It is announced that the officers' mess will attend the Gymkhana in full uniform and occupy several of the boxes. The committee has decided to award a special prize to the best costumed cowboy, to ride in the Polo Club parade, which will take place Saturday morning. There are a great many former western riders in the capital.

The races will start at 2 p. m., and the show in the evening will be held in the Horse Show building.

WHO'S WHO IN WORLD OF SPORT

Old "Deacon" Phillippe, once a stellar boxman of the Pirates, will celebrate his forty-first birthday to-morrow. The "Deacon's" last appearance in the public prints was in connection with his engagement to manage one of the clubs in a new outlaw league. Phillippe was born at Rural Retreat, Va., May 23, 1872, and was christened Charles, but his solemnity of demeanor won the title of "Deacon" soon after he began his professional baseball career. That was in 1897, when he was signed to pitch for Minneapolis, then in the Western league. Phillippe played with the Millers two seasons, and in 1899 received a call from Louisville. The Colonels were then members in good standing of the National league. In 1900 the Louisville team was transferred to Pittsburg, and the "Deacon" began his long and glorious career of a dozen years as a Pirate slab-artist. He was one of the twirling mainstays of the great aggregation of Buccaneers that copped the National league pennant in 1901, 1902 and 1903. In those years the "Deacon" did fairly well at bat, hanging up an average of from .210 to .221. In 1905 he slumped in his stick work to .093, but came back strong the following year with a batting average of .244. The "Deacon" continued to pitch brainy ball for the Pirates until 1908, when he was out of the game, nearly all season on account of illness. He had not fully recovered in 1909, and was used in only twenty-two games, finishing the year with a batting average of .071, but with a fielding average of 1,000. The Pirates won the pennant again that year, so that the "Deacon" has been a member of four pennant winning teams. In 1910 Philippe showed flashes of his old-time form, but the following year he was used in only a few games, and it was evident that the old veteran was through with major league ball.

BRILLIANT GATHERING WITNESSES WEDDING

Nuptials of Miss Mary Macdonald and Mr. P. J. Webb Celebrated This Morning

One of the smartest and most largely-attended weddings which has ever been celebrated in the city took place yesterday forenoon at St. Andrew's Cathedral, when Mary Theresa Macdonald, of this city, and Mr. Peter Jeffrey Webb were united in marriage, the celebrant being Bishop Macdonald. Assisting the Bishop in the solemn pontifical nuptial high mass, which commenced at 10 o'clock, were Rev. John O'Brien, of Everett, Washington, who acted as deacon of the mass; Father Edward Barrett, of Bellingham, as sub-deacon; Father Cunningham, of Spokane, and Father Vandenberg, of Idaho, who were the deacons of honor; Father Macdonald, of St. Andrew's Cathedral, who acted as master of ceremonies; Master Albert Belanger, censor-bearer, assisted by Master Albert MacDougall; Master James Gildersleeve, cross-bearer, and Master William MacKay, mitre bearer and crosier bearer.

Other priests present in the sanctuary included Father Fissure, of Esquimalt; Father Silver, of Ladysmith; Father Scheelen, of Duncan; Father Ronden; Father Cortenraad, of Saanich; and Father Condon, of St. Joseph's Hospital.

The decorations in the cathedral were exceptionally beautiful, the altar, with its myriad of lighted colored wax tapers and decorations of white carnations, forming a brilliant background for the ceremony. The pedestals to the right and left of the bridal couple at the sanctuary steps were almost concealed beneath twining roses and lilies of the valley, while each of the pews along the main aisle was decorated with a mount of white lilac, dogwood, or narcissus, the same flowers being intertwined in the archway over the main doorway.

The bride was extremely handsome in an exquisitely simple gown of white Duchess satin, en train, with inset sleeves and yoke of old point lace, while the veil of roftest white tulle was fastened in place by a half-wreath of orange blossoms. With this she wore as her only ornament the bridegroom's gift of a diamond and pearl pendant, her bouquet being of bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Her sister, Mrs. Michael Burns Carlin, acted as matron of honor, wearing a beautiful dress of blue brocade with figured ninon sleeves and yoke, and a white hat trimmed with lilacs and pink roses, her bouquet being of lilacs.

The two bridesmaids, the Misses Dorothy and Margaret Carlin, nieces of the bride, wore picturesque frocks of pink charmeuse, with narrow hem of pink rosebuds round the throat and hem, the cream-colored straw hats being trimmed with a deeper shade of pink roses, and the bouquets which they carried being composed of the same flowers.

The best man was Mr. Robert J. Power, of Seattle; the ushers being Messrs. Stewart, L. J. Shanahan, J. J. Sullivan, T. B. Monk, F. R. Doherty and J. D. O'Connell.

The musical part of the services, which were in charge of Frank Sehl, Benedick Bantley presiding at the organ, were particularly beautiful, the hymns sung being "Veni Creator," by a trio of picked voices; "O Salutaris," in which Mrs. Sehl sustained the solo; the "Sanctus," and the "Benedictus," in which Mrs. Charles Wilson was the soloist. The concluding part of the ceremony consisted of the singing of "Magnificat" by the choir, and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the bridal party left the cathedral.

Showers of rice and confetti were showered on the happy pair as they passed down the church steps, the guests repairing to the Empress hotel, where a very largely attended reception and wedding-breakfast took place. During the latter a number of felicitous speeches were made by His Lordship Bishop Macdonald; J. J. Sullivan, who acted as toastmaster, and many others, including the Hon. Price Ellison and the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Webb left by the afternoon boat for Chicago and intermediate points, and on their return will make their home in Victoria. The bridegroom's present to the best man was a diamond stick-pin, and to the ushers solid gold watch-chains; his present to the bride was a handsome diamond and emerald pendant, and to the bridesmaids pearl and diamond brooches.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Burns Carlin, Mrs. Macdonald, the bride's mother; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Devlin, Miss Monteith, Colonel Payne, the Hon. Price Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kent, Mrs. J. A. Turner, Miss Tobin, Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Bickers, Mr. and Mrs. Borde, Miss McQuade, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sehl, Mr. and Mrs. Hume, Miss Stewart, Miss Carlin, Mrs. Justice Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Benedick Bantley, Mrs. John Macdonald, Miss Mason, Mrs. Harry Pooley, Mrs. Furlonger, Mrs. Abraham Smith, Miss Lillian Smith, Miss Newcombe, Mrs. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. McCurdy, Mrs. Galliher, Miss Bell, Mr. Roger Monteith, Mr. Mason, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. R. W. Gibson, Mrs. Radeger, Miss Myers, Mrs. Rattenbury, Mrs. Leblanc and many others.

OUR LETTER BOX

Letters for publication in Daily Times must be received at the Times office not later than the day before the day of publication. When received later they will be held over until the following day.

While unobjectionable anonymous communications will be published, the name and address of every writer of such letters must be given to the editor.

HIS ONE CONSOLATION.

To the Editor: Without the least wish or intention to flatter I must say I have for some time admired the indifference with which the Victoria Times frequently treats the daily and weekly onslaughts of Conservative allies—just occasionally waking up with a snort when the tail-pulling is carried a little too far. The tactics of your contemporary are quite the opposite, as he sleeps (or pretends to) when driven to bay; but makes a mighty fuss over safe trifles, political or otherwise.

What a crying shame it is that the slimy trail of politics so constantly dominates the press and every respectable assembly in Victoria.

Even the editor of the morning paper is becoming weary of it, and plaintively asks his contributors for goodness sake to "let him have a little fun for a change," and actually tells those dreary persons what to joke about! Under the circumstances could it be believed that this groan from the Sabbath morning worker has not resulted in one isolated reply since Sunday last, when first the tired wail went up from the office of the editor. However, he can always get some relief in a "bout" with the mayor, as usual.

MORTALITY REDUCED OVER THREE-FIFTHS

Serum for Infantile Paralysis Discovered by Rockefeller Institute Shows High Results

Dr. G. A. B. Hall, the medical health officer, has just received a copy of the first comprehensive report ever compiled of the effects of the new serum discovered by the Rockefeller Institute for epidemic meningitis, popularly known as infantile paralysis. He intends to write to New York and ask for a quantity of the serum to have on hand in case of an outbreak here.

The report shows that the average mortality in infantile paralysis epidemics is well over 70 per cent., while the mortality in cases treated with the serum is 30.9. Where the serum is administered to a patient within the first three days of the infection the mortality in only 18.1 per cent., showing that incipient cases yield more readily.

The statistics are based on records kept of 1,294 cases, of which 894 recovered and 400 died. The author of the report, Dr. Simon Flexner, says that the cases were not selected and that not a single exclusion was practiced except where dying cases were treated and the patients died within 24 hours.

The histories of these cases have been collected from all parts of Canada and the United States, as well as from Europe and Asia, and so far as can be observed both in the serum treated cases and the others, climate or season has little or no effect on the disease, which is severe or mild according to the virility of the meningococcus.

From the fact that the greatest percentage of recoveries occurs among serum treated patients treated in the first three days, it might be inferred that the survival of the first few days nominally affords great insurance of ultimate recovery. This does not appear correct, however, as in the 1,481 fatal cases collected equally indiscriminately from among patients not treated with the serum 25 per cent. died in the first three days, 24 per cent. between the fourth and seventh, and almost 50 per cent. later than that. Of the serum treated patients who died 18.1 per cent. were treated in the first three days, 27.2 per cent. were treated between the fourth and seventh day, and 36.5 per cent. after that.

The age of the patient also enters into the figuring, young patients being more susceptible to the serum.

THE HUMAN PROCESSION

By conducting his own case and using "Sherlock Holmes" methods in cross-examining witnesses, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle recently emerged triumphant from a damage suit in which his pet collie dog was accused of killing sheep. After utterly discrediting the testimony of the prosecution, Sir Arthur proved to the satisfaction of the court that his dog, a valuable animal and the playmate of his children, had a faulty jaw bone that rendered it incapable of killing a sheep.

Sir Arthur, who won world-wide fame as the creator of "Sherlock Holmes," will pass his fifty-fourth milestone today, having been born in Edinburgh on May 22, 1859. His father, Charles Doyle, was an artist, and his uncle, Richard Doyle, and his grandfather, John Doyle, celebrated caricaturists. Sir Arthur was educated for the medical profession and practiced many years, besides serving as ship's doctor on a vessel running to the West African coast, and on an expedition to the Arctic regions. His first important novel, "A Study in Scarlet," was published twenty-six years ago, and ever since he has been numbered among the most popular novelists of the English-speaking world.

The great writer of detective stories is interested in many public questions. For years he has worked to promote a better understanding between Great Britain and Germany. Irish Home Rule has found a devoted defender in Sir Arthur. He was formerly an advocate of suffrage for women, but the actions of the militants have alienated him from the cause, and he is now bitter in his denunciation of the "wild women." Fresh air "baths," billiards, coin-collecting and golf are among Sir Arthur's recreations and hobbies.

Major Baden F. S. Baden-Powell, author, student of aeronautics, and proprietor of several scientific journals, will celebrate his fifty-third birthday to-day. He is a younger brother of the hero of Mafeking and Boy Scout leader. Major Baden-Powell is an authority on military aviation and aerial bombs, and he believes that the latter will eventually make war impossible by rendering it too terribly destructive to be contemplated by any civilized people.

Mme. Alla Nazimova, the great Russian actress who has won such a tremendous success in both Europe and America, was born in a little Crimean village on the shores of the Black Sea thirty-four years ago to-day. Her father, a chemist, sent her to Switzerland to be educated. At twelve she returned to Russia and entered the conservatory at Odessa, her ambition then being to become a violinist. In Odessa she lived with a family of stage people, and their influence changed her ambition. Despite the protests of her parents, she persisted, and at twenty was a full-fledged actress in a Russian stock company. Ten years ago she left Russia to win the plaudits of Berlin, Paris, London and New York.

Sir Aston Webb, the great English architect, will pass his sixty-fourth milestone to-day. WOMAN SICK FOR YEARS

Wants Other Women to Know How She was Finally Restored to Health.

Hammond, Ont. — "I am passing through the Change of Life and for two years had hot flushes very bad, headaches, soreness in the back of head, was constipated, and had weak, nervous feelings. The doctor who attended me for a number of years did not help me, but I have been entirely relieved of the above symptoms by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills, and give you permission to publish my testimonial." — Mrs. LOUIS BEAUCAGE, Sr., Hammond, Ont., Canada.

New Brunswick, Canada. — "I can highly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to any suffering woman. I have taken it for female weakness and painful menstruation and it cured me." — Mrs. DEVERE BARBOUR, Harvey Bank, New Brunswick, Canada.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know. Hundreds of thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

THE EVENING CHIT-CHAT

By RUTH CAMERON

There is nothing more certain about the tastes and desires of the average human being than their uncertainty. Fickleness is the eternal law of human desire. Satiety spoils more happiness than any other cause.

Now it doesn't take a philosopher to appreciate these facts. You know them and I know them. Every grown man or woman has been taught them many times by his or her own experience. Why then, don't more of us live by them? Why don't we learn to regulate our pleasures with a view to prolonging them; in other words, why aren't we more careful not to get tired of the things we enjoy?

When I was in college I once learned a new game of cards just a few days before the examinations. It was a very interesting game and my room-mate and I were fascinated by it and devoted every spare moment to it. But as anyone who has ever prepared for an important examination can imagine, those spare moments were few. Through the long dull hours of grinding we looked forward to a half hour before bedtime in which we could play a few hands of our new game. And each time we rose reluctantly from the card table we would say defiantly, "Well, the day after examinations are over we will play all day long if we want to."

At last examinations were really over and we carried out our threat. All one rainy day and half the next we played and played and played. Something else claimed our attention the second afternoon, but after dinner that evening we took up the cards for our daily half hour, and, behold, the charm had gone!

We didn't play that game for weeks and we never cared so much for it again. Half its charm had been the fact that circumstances kept us from getting too much of it. Once we ran it into the ground the spell was broken.

I heard a business woman enthusiastically praise a certain delightful little luncheon place which she had discovered, and was therefore surprised when I saw her coming out of another restaurant one noon.

"How happens it that you didn't go to your favorite place?" I asked.

"Oh, I don't go there every day," she explained, "I like it too well to let myself get tired of it."

Wisdom like that is rare. Most of us spoil half our pleasures by running them into the ground. They say that if a horse gets at the food bin he will eat until he kills himself. Human beings don't often do that, but when the feed bin of any pleasure is left open to them, they frequently eat until they kill their desire for it.

"Nothing too much" was the motto of the most balanced and happiest nation the world ever knew. Self-restraint even in the matter of harmless pleasures is always its own reward.

Men! Try this shampoo for dandruff

Makes the scalp feel fine

First, rub the scalp fully five minutes with the tips of your fingers. Then apply a hot, thick lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it in, rub it in, rub it in. Now rinse in gradually cooler water, having the final water really cold. Rub again with the finger tips till the hair is dry.

Woodbury's Facial Soap is the work of an authority on the skin and hair. This treatment with it loosens the dandruff and dead skin, cleanses the little pores at the base of each hair and restores them to their natural, healthy action. The oil from these pores then goes into the hair, and gives it that gloss and glint so much admired. The dandruff and accompanying itching disappear and the scalp feels delightfully clean and "alive."

Try it. Get a cake of Woodbury's today. Woodbury's Facial Soap costs 25c a cake. No one hesitates at the price after their first cake.

NET RESULTS

By GEORGE MATHEW ADAMS

Most of us are prone to base our praise or admiration on the Gross total of things. As a matter of fact, the only thing that figures in Results is the Net.

Real Value is Net Results.

It is the Net earning capacity of a concern that counts with those who run it. A concern may do business running into millions of dollars yet lose money. It is the net profits that prove the Value of the Stock. And with a man, it is what he saves, not what he receives, that measures his earning capacity.

Real Value is Net Results.

You may have ability enough to rule the world, but if you don't make use of every bit of that ability to its limits, you might just as well have but a fraction of that ability. For the Net Results will stamp you as less than your ability represent you to be.

Real Value is Net Results.

Enthusiasm is tremendous physical and mental energy, abundance of ideas. These things are almost priceless as assets, but it is the Net Results that are set up against them at the close of each job you do and every day you end that make them worth while to you. Many a man wears himself all out exerting every ounce of force at his command at one outburst and then subsides without accomplishing anything.

Real Value is Net Results.

It is a good thing to form the habit of picturing the Net every time you begin anything. And seeing the Net before you, you adjust your efforts exactly so as to receive the largest possible Net returns.

Go after the Net Results.

HOW TO ACQUIRE HEALTH AND BEAUTY

HOW TO HAVE BEAUTIFUL HAIR—An occasional massage with a quinzoin hair-tonic is very beneficial to both hair and scalp. To make the tonic add an ounce quinzoin to ½ pint alcohol, then put in ½ pint of water. This should be gently massaged into the scalp at frequent intervals. Using this quinzoin tonic corrects brittleness in hair and gives to it a rich tint and glossiness as well as induces a healthy, luxuriant growth.

FOR WEAK EYES—A bright, clear, youthful eye is always attractive and admired. Most girls neglect to give the eyes proper care. Very few use an eye-tonic, which is essential in properly caring for the eyes. The following tonic is fine for weak, tired and inflamed eyes: Go to your druggist and get one ounce of crystos and dissolve it in a pint of water. Use two or three drops in each eye night and morning. It will not smart. This inexpensive eye-tonic will do you lots of good and relieve you of that dull, tired feeling above the eyes.

FOR THE "OVER-FAT" — If you are uncomfortably fat and wish to reduce your weight try this simple remedy: Dissolve 4 ounces parnotis in 1½ pints hot water and when it cools take a tablespoonful before each meal. This treatment is quite inexpensive and gradually reduces weight without the slightest possible danger or inconvenience. It does not leave the skin wrinkled nor is the flesh flabby.

WRINKLE - REMOVER — Wrinkles can be quickly removed by using this stimulating vegetable jelly-cream which can be made at home at very little cost and will, while filling out the wrinkles, purge the skin of muddy spots and pimples. Get from your druggist one ounce almozoin and dissolve it in half-pint of cold water, adding 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. Stir and let stand one day. Apply to wrinkled surface or entire face to prevent wrinkles and leave through night. Then wash off and use more of the jelly-cream as a massage. This treatment will remove the most obstinate wrinkles or finest crow's feet, while toning the skin to a velvety texture. This cream being greaseless, does not make hair grow.

TO MAKE HAIR VANISH—Apply a delatone paste to the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then remove, wash the skin and the hairs are gone, leaving the skin firm and smooth. The paste is made by mixing powdered delatone with water. You can get a small, original package of delatone at any drug store. Be sure it is delatone.

PORT ANGELES LOOKS FOR BRIGHT FUTURE

Taps Fine Timber and Farming Districts; Has Unlimited Water Power

RAILWAY TO CONNECT THE CITY WITH SEATTLE

Victoria People Hold Over 10 Per Cent. of Assessed Value of Property

Over ten per cent. of the assessed value of Port Angeles real estate is registered in the names of Victoria people. Stories which have come from that city to the effect that there is a law in the State of Washington preventing aliens from holding land, and that the railroad which is being built is merely a logging road, caused the Victoria Times to send a reporter to that place to investigate the truth of these and other representations regarding Port Angeles. The Commercial Club of Port Angeles made the Times' representative its guest, and made it possible for him to acquire at first hand the information set out herein.

The population of Port Angeles is at present in the neighborhood of 3,500. The town is divided into two parts by a cliff which runs through it from east to west, separating the lower town from the upper town. There is an almost landlocked harbor protected from the prevailing westerly winds by a sand bar three and a half miles long. There are within twenty miles of Port Angeles one of the finest timber districts in the western half of the continent, an ideal farming district of 150 square miles, and a river with unlimited power possibilities.

Beautiful Summer Resorts.

These are the bare facts about Port Angeles. In addition, it might be said that excellent roads tributary to the city intersect each other all through Clallam county and lead to a number of charming pleasure resorts, Lake Crescent, Lake Sutherland and Sol Duc Springs, all three in the same direction, being among the most notable. Already these places are becoming known to tourists, and the automobile stage to Sol Duc carries a big load of passengers every trip.

Varied scenery might also be given as one of the attractions of the city. The beautiful water on one side and the grand Olympic range on the other are in striking contrast, while a few miles east the roads lead to a flat, arable country, two-thirds of which is in actual cultivation. The Elwha canon and the little mountain lakes are the equivalent in beauty of anything in the Canadian Rockies.

From the business standpoint Port Angeles can be said to be reasonably certain of a prosperous future. How far the growth will go can be told only in the future, but there is every reason why it should continue for some years yet.

Founded by Abraham Lincoln.

The townsite of Port Angeles was founded originally by Abraham Lincoln. For fifty years it was a prosperous little fishing village, backed up by a splendid dairy industry. Then the real estate business was invented, and the word progress was instilled into the Western business and municipal existence. For some years now the town has been growing rapidly, and, unlike many Western places, the citizens did not lose their sense of duty to keep utilities apace with population.

$5,000,000 to Be Spent.

Assured expenditures to be made in and about Port Angeles immediately for the improvement of that place will total well over $4,000,000, while negotiations are under way to induce at least two industries to locate, and they will spend between them nearly another million dollars.

The railway from Seattle will spend $2,000,000 in Port Angeles, and the city has undertaken the construction of a retaining wall for the purpose of extending the land a short distance further out than it is at present. The railway will use this made ground, for which the city appropriated $150,000 only a couple of weeks ago.

The streets leading from the waterfront, which end at the cliffs, are to be graded at an expenditure of about $325,000, and the lower streets are to be raised probably about six or eight feet in proportion, so as to connect the upper town with the lower town by good streets. This enterprise will cost in the neighborhood of $325,000. Fully signed petitions for this improvement are in possession of the city council now, and public opinion is compelling the undertaking immediately.

Bridges across a gully, which cuts through the cliff in two places, are costing $26,000. Both of these will be finished in July.

Million Dollar Sawmill.

A sawmill enterprise at the head of the harbor is investing $1,200,000 in its plant, and a power company in the Elwha let a $500,000 contract only last week for the reconstruction of its dam, which was swept away last October just as it was completed.

The county has appropriated $300,000 for roads, all of which will be tributary to Port Angeles, and of $180,000 set aside for Clallam county roads by the state about $140,000 will be spent near that city.

From these facts it will be seen that the people of Port Angeles and Clallam county are by no means asleep to the needs of their community.

Much has been said about the railway and its intentions regarding Port Angeles. The known facts are that a small new company, the Seattle, Port Angeles and Lake Crescent Railway Company, owned by C. J. Erickson, the well-known railway contractor, who does practically all the work for the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Company, is building a line from Port Ludlow, opposite Seattle, to Lake Crescent through Port Angeles. The contract calls for an expenditure of $25,000 mile. There are tangents of 7,000 feet on the line in several places, and the two ferries which are to transport the cars and locomotives across the Sound cost $450,000 each. The Interstate Commerce Commission has awarded Port Angeles terminal rates from Eastern points, and there is an agreement between the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound Railway and the new company whereby one rate will carry passengers over both lines.

A Rockefeller Enterprise.

The Rockefellers own the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway. They own 42,000 acres of oil land in Clallam county and they own 60 per cent. of the timber in that country. Erickson has been the contractor on most of the Chicago, St. Paul and Milwaukee developments. A professional "boomer" is in the city working up a new daily newspaper, to start about July. His office is in the office of the solicitor for the young railway company. H. B. Earling, a brother of the president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul; R. M. Alkins, general traffic manager of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound; Corwin S. Shank, attorney for the same road; C. J. Erickson and a number of Seattle bankers paid a visit to Port Angeles last week and inspected the work.

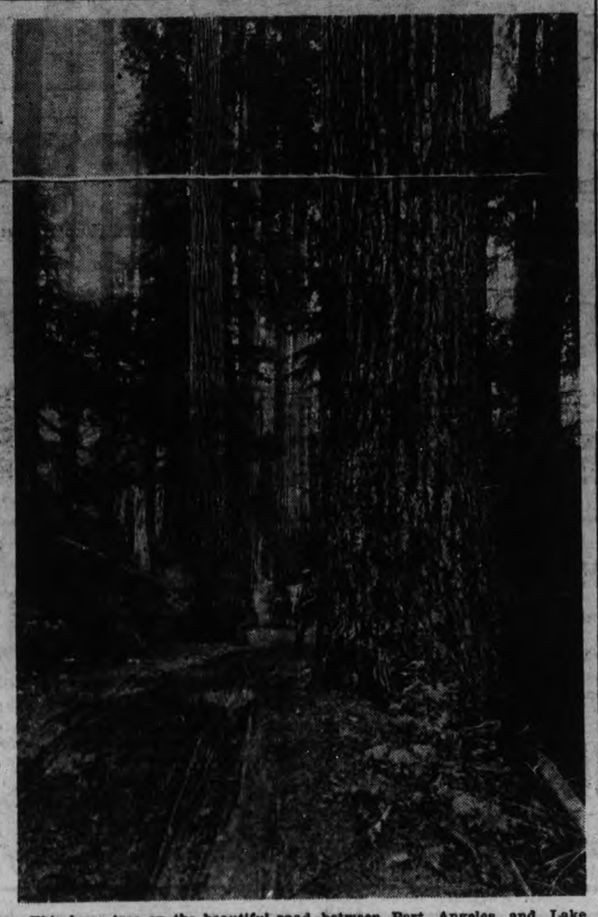
50,000 FEET OF TIMBER



This huge tree on the beautiful road between Port Angeles and Lake Crescent was estimated by an expert to contain 50,000 feet. It is probably the largest tree on the road but there are millions of them in Clallam county. These trees are the reason for the million dollar sawmill which is being built at Port Angeles.

CREATES 9,600 HORSEPOWER

This hundred foot dam in the Elwha river near Port Angeles was finished in October, but when the water rose the footings were swept away. Evidence of the damage can be seen up the canon, but below all has been cleared away. Power will be ready for sale in a few months again and will be transmitted as far away as Bremerton.

A Summer Necessity.

CASES POSTPONED TO FALL ASSIZES

True Bills Found; Cook, Hearn and O'Connor Will Not Be Tried at Present

ILLNESS OF COUNSEL IS CAUSE OF DELAY

Accused Men Had Difficulty in Securing New Bail, Remaining in Custody Meanwhile

By the traversing to the fall assizes of the cases against F. C. Cook, R. N. O'Connor and J. O. Hearn, commonly known as the Bankers' Trust cases, what was expected to be the most lengthy sitting of an assize court in this county has been cut short, and this afternoon will see the conclusion of the business before it.

At 3 o'clock yesterday the grand jury brought in true bills against the accused—Cook, Hearn and O'Connor being jointly indicted for conspiracy, and Cook being also indicted for theft.

W. H. Bullock-Webster stated to the court that he appeared on behalf of Frank Higgins, who was confined to his home by illness and would be unable to attend at the present assizes. On that account, and as the accused had not had time to instruct other counsel, he asked that the cases be sent over until the next assizes.

Some Days Yet.

H. B. Robertson, crown prosecutor, informed the court that he had expected Mr. Higgins to be able to come to court by Monday, but on calling up his house since the opening of the assizes he had found that his condition was more serious than was thought at first, and that it would be some days before he would be able to attend to business. This being so he had at once laid the matter before the attorney-general for his opinion. The attorney-general thought that in the interests of justice, and in order to give the accused every chance to make their defence, an application to traverse the cases to the fall assizes or to a special assizes should not be opposed.

His lordship, Mr. Justice Morrison, did not think there was any necessity for the holding of a special assize, and granted the request of the defence for a traverse to the fall assizes to be held here.

Having surrendered for trial at the appointed time and place, there was no further responsibility on the bondsmen, and the trio were placed under arrest until they had provided new bail for their appearance at the fall assizes.

Ordered New Bonds.

The men themselves and their counsel had an idea that the bail given originally before Judge Lampman held good until they faced a jury, but this was not the opinion of the crown prosecutor, and in this view his lordship upheld him when counsel appeared before him in chambers to argue the point. He ordered that new bonds be executed in the same sums as before, and he said he would attend in chambers at 9 o'clock to sign the bonds if the accused were then ready.

Messrs. Cook, Hearn and O'Connor were conducted to the provincial police office in custody, and from there for some hours they were busy, and their counsel for them, by telephone, telegraph and messenger, in trying to bring friends who would go bail for them. One of the bondsmen was being married, another was attending the wedding, and a third was more inaccessible in that he is in England. On the conspiracy charge Hearn and O'Connor have to give personal bail to the amount of $8,000 each and two sureties each. Cook is not so fortunate, owing to there being two charges against him, and the total amount of his personal bail is $13,000, $5,000 on the conspiracy charge and $8,000 on the theft charge.

LULLABY.

As the mother laid the small boy in his cot she murmured, "Now, lie there, quite still, and mother will go downstairs and play a tune while you go to sleep. Which tune would you like?" "Any of the noisy ones, mammy," replied the babe.—Manchester Guardian.

ZAM-BUK CURED HIS ECZEMA

Mr. James McComb, of Thornton, Ont., writes: 'For eight months I suffered from eczema and could get nothing to give me relief. I heard of several cases where good results had followed the use of Zam-Buk and decided to give this remedy a trial. Within three days I felt much better, and within two weeks the sores were entirely cured."

For all skin diseases, eruptions, boils, scalp sores, etc., Zam-Buk is without equal. It is just as good for cuts, burns, bruises, blood-poison, piles, varicose ulcers, bad leg, inflamed sores, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c. box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Refuse harmful substitutes and imitations.

Have you tried Zam-Buk Soap? 25c. tablet.

Life, indeed, must always be a compromise between common sense and the ideal—the one abating nothing of its demands, the other accommodating itself to what is practicable and real.—Amiel.

SACRED CANTATA IS GIVEN SECOND TIME

St. Andrew's Choir Repeats Performance of "The Holy City;" Organ Reopened

Gaul's sacred cantata, "The Holy City," grown familiar to most music lovers in the years which have intervened between the time of its original performance in 1882 at the Birmingham Musical Festival, was given last evening at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church by the choir of that place under the direction of Jesse Longfield. This is the second time within a year that the work has been given by the same musical organization, and the excellence of last evening's performance was a strong argument in favor of such treatment of compositions which prove popular. The voices worked in splendid unison in the numerous choruses, and, saving in one instance, the choir seemed absolutely confident of the treatment of the consecutive passages.

The unaccompanied prologue, which beautifully embodies the reflective character of the work, "Love Not the World," was followed by the contemplative music of the opening chorus of Part 1, "No Shadows Yonder!" which the choir gave perhaps better than any other passage in this part of the performance. "List! the Cherub Host," a chorus for the treble and contralto voices toward the close of the cantata, however, quite equalled the former, while the difficult closing chorus, with its contrapuntal phrasing, was given with commendable confidence.

The soloists were practically the same as on the previous occasion when the work was performed by the choir, Mr. Dunford giving one of the most beautiful melodies of the work in his tenor solo, "No Weeping Yonder," shortly after followed by "My Soul Is Athirst." Mrs. Codd's beautiful soprano possesses a quality peculiarly suited to the singing of such devotional passages as "These are they which came out of great tribulation," while the same penetrating sweetness of voice could easily be heard above the others in the chorus, "List! the Cherubic Host." In an almost similar degree Mrs. Longfield's contralto could easily be distinguished among the other voices of the chorus, while her varied soli, and more particularly "Eye Hath Not Seen," were given with sympathy and fervor. Mr. Codd's robust basso sustained the long passages of the opening portion of the second part of the performance in most creditable manner, being admirably suited to the nature of the words and music, and, in the passage "I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne," pealing organ-like through the chorus of massed voices. Miss Blakeway, second contralto, and Miss Beck, second soprano, shared in the work of the other leading voices in the trios and quartettes.

The occasion also inaugurated the reopening the church organ, which for some weeks past has been undergoing repair, and in several of the intermezzos Mr. Longfield had a good opportunity to display the tonal variety of his instrument. There was a large audience, among those present being His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, who was accompanied by H. J. Muskett.

TRADES COUNCIL TO WRITE ALL MEMBERS

Ask Conference Between Miners and Mine Managements; Consider Building By-law

The Trades and Labor Council last night decided to write to every member of the legislature, calling on him to use his influence with the government to the end that a conference be held between the island miners and the managements of the different mines. It was also agreed to send a communication to the Trades Council in Vancouver asking that body to take similar action.

A delegate from the Longshoremens' Union recommended that unemployed members of the labor unions should report at the Labor hall. He expected frequent calls to be made by his organization for extra help, as the longshoremen are about to enter into an agreement with the stevedoring companies, and will call on the Labor hall from time to time as help may be required at such times.

The legislative committee was directed to find out what powers, if any, the city has in the matter of appointing a scaffolding inspector, and to press for a by-law or an amendment to the Building By-Law to cover the subjects.

A copy of the report and recommendation of the legislative committee of the city council on free speech was read, and referred to the legislative committee for a report.

The finance committee reported that since the beginning of the year $1,263.35 had been received by the financial secretary, and $1,263.07 paid out, this wiping out the last of the indebtedness that has hampered the council for a year and a half. Great satisfaction was expressed at the energy displayed by the financial secretary, the council deciding on the recommendation of the committee to recognize his services by a suitable increase in his allowance.

Messrs. Sivertz, Watchman, Martin and Lawrison were appointed a committee to prepare statement for the royal commission on labor for its sittings in Victoria. It was decided that all unions having subjects they wish to testify on before the commission were to give the committee particulars.

The secretary was directed to write to the provincial inspector of railways on the subject of the type of cars used by the Sir Jackson Company on the breakwater works.

INDIAN LANDS COMMISSION.

Arrangement and Preliminary Consideration of Petitions Yesterday Afternoon.

The Indian lands commission again met in the parliament building yesterday afternoon and continued the preparation work commenced in the morning. Another appointment was made in addition to that mentioned yesterday, namely, that of Mr. Telfer as stenographer.

It is extremely probable that the commission will find new headquarters after this week in the new Belmont block, as there are well over a thousand reserves in the province the investigations will necessarily take up a good deal of time. The arrangement and preliminary consideration of various petitions presented by the counsel, Macgregor Young, K. C., occupied a considerable portion of yesterday afternoon's session.

The working classes are having more leisure, but their employment is becoming increasingly monotonous. Men are thus driven to look for intellectual interest outside their work.—Mr. Mackinder, M. P.

FIRST THINGS

The first English baronet was created by James I. 302 years ago to-day, when the honor was conferred on Sir Nicholas Bacon, who became Baronet of Redgrave and Mildenhall. The present premier Baronet is the twelfth of his line. English baronets are the first to rank among the gentry, and hold the only order of knighthood that is hereditary. The rebellion in Ulster gave rise to this order, recipients of this honor having been required, on their creation, to pay into the exchequer a sum that would maintain "thirty soldiers three years at eightpence a day in the province of Ulster in Ireland." It was further required that a baronet should be a "gentleman born," and have a clear estate of £1,000 per annum. The baronets of Ireland were created in 1619, the first being Sir Francis Blundell. Baronets of Nova Scotia were created in 1625, and Sir Robert Gordon was the first. To win the latter honor, a substantial contribution to the Nova Scotia colonization fund and the establishment of actual settlements were required, in return for which each member of the order was given an estate of eighteen square miles. Since the Irish Union in 1801 all baronets created are of the United Kingdom.

Commissioner Moore Calls First Session; To Investigate Condition of Buildings

Commissioner H. W. R. Moore will conduct his inquiry, call his witness and generally commence to exercise the very wide powers which have been granted him within the four corners of the commission at the court house to-morrow morning at 10.30 sharp.

In the interim Mr. Moore will have the opportunity of reading the voluminous report prepared by the special committee of the Board of Trade on immigration, the members of which have probed very closely into the whole business. It is expected that the report will help the commission very considerably.

The first thing that Mr. Moore will take up for consideration at the session to-morrow morning will be an investigation into the state of the buildings and accommodations.

Port Townsend, Wash., May 22.—Lawrence Smith, a 12-year-old boy, of Everett, is drifting about in the straits in a small rowboat or has drowned, is the word received by Collector Harper from Anacortes with a request to have the revenue cutter launch make a search.

Young Smith was left at a home in Thatcher on Blakeley island for the summer. After remaining one day he took a rowboat and disappeared.

THIRTY-FOUR PER CENT. MONTREAL LOAN TAKEN

London, May 21.—Only thirty-four per cent. of the new city of Montreal loan has been subscribed by the public, sixty-six per cent. being left with the underwriters. The result, under all circumstances, is satisfactory considering the lukewarm welcome accorded recently to new loans and the fact that this is Montreal's second application to London within three months. It is perhaps not untimely to direct the attention of Montreal and other similar Canadian borrowers that the creation of a big floating indebtedness is certainly invariably to penalise them in the market.

Port Angeles Gets Shops.

Port Angeles is to be the division point on the line and will, of course, have the repair shops, although the manufacturing of cars and locomotives will be done in the shops of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound Railway.

At present the railway is waiting upon the city in the matter of the retaining wall which is necessary for its enterprise. Railway avenue is to be the name of the new street below Front street and the trains will run along it. The city has passed its ordinance but cannot advertise for tenders until June 3 under the State laws. Seven or eight gangs are at work, however, on the hundred odd miles between Port Ludlow and Lake Crescent and the railway will begin work just as soon as the city provides this land.

A Gift For John D.

One criticism that has been offered the people of Port Angeles is that they raised $85,000 to procure the railway's right of way through the town. It is felt by these critics that John D. Rockefeller is not so poor that he need accept gratitudes from struggling little municipalities. These people also say that Rockefeller's interests in Clallam County are so great that he would have had to do something to develop them.

The power plant is another institution that will do much for Port Angeles and the surrounding country. The community would be getting the benefit from this now only for the engineer's bungle in not sinking the footings for the dam deep enough. When the water finally was stopped up it mounted to the height of the dam and then the pressure swept the bottom away and the destruction was terrific. This was in October and the debris was cleaned away only last week.

A gang of 200 men comes to work this week on the contract and this time the footings will be dropped to bed rock.

The dam, which is of cement raises the water 100 feet, and the footings go 100 feet below the river bed. The dam is about three and a half miles from the mouth of the Elwha. The cement is 97 feet thick and 60 feet across stream at the bottom. It is 200 feet across stream at the top. The power house is 80x90 feet in dimensions and has 9,600 horse power to sell to its customers, chief of which will be the big sawmill and the municipality of Port Angeles. The transmission lines are altogether about 105 miles long and have been standing for months. Power will be sold as far away as the Bremerton navy yards.

Victorian Paid $600 Taxes.

The president and chief capitalist of this company is a Canadian, George A. Glines of Winnipeg. Glines is a big holder of Port Angeles real estate also.

At this point the explanation is proper that the alien land law of Washington is absolutely worthless. Land is held by a large number of Canadians in Port Angeles and only last Friday, the day the Times reporter was there, a Victoria man paid a tax bill of $600 to the municipality. A Chinaman owns one of the most prosperous market garden farms in the county just outside Port Angeles and carts his stuff into the city in a huge automobile truck.

Will Bring 1,000 Families

The million dollar saw mill is probaby one of the most encouraging developments Port Angeles is getting. The plant when completed this fall will employ 600 men in the mill and between 400 and 600 in the forest. They count on bringing into the town at least 1,000 families. The shingle mill is known as a fourteen block mill, which means that its machinery is duplicated 14 times in the plant. This portion of the plant will be working inside of two weeks. It contracts with the city to turn out 700,000 shingles a day and the whole plant guarantees to handle 400,000 feet of lumber a day. Adjoining the mill some six or eight acres of water lots are to be filled in for a paper mill and a fibre board plant which propose to use to a large extent the refuse from the mill.

That this mill can be kept supplied for a great many years to come is evident from the fact that there are 600,000,000,000 feet of lumber in Clallam County. About 40 per cent. of it is under Forest Reserve by the National government. There are already 17 shingle mills in Port Angeles and only the other day a ship took two million shingles out of the harbor.

Harbor is Land Locked

The magnificent harbor is reckoned to be one of the most valuable assets of the town. When the railway is finished it is claimed that ten per cent. of the shipping to Seattle, Tacoma, Everett and Bellingham will be stopped at Port Angeles because the windjammers which carry the heavy freight can sail into the harbor and right up to the dock at Port Angeles, thereby saving anywhere from $400 to $1,600 for a tug. The spit which protects the harbor varies in width between the shore and its point from 200 to 1,100 feet and is adding to its width all the time as the river Elwha empties outside the harbor instead of inside and the current from the ocean carries the sand against the spit.

The street which is being constructed from the dock to the sawmill along the full length of the harbor will prove an ideal industrial site with the railway and water shipping facilities one at each door.

Clallam County produced a million pounds of butter in 1912 and is the leading dairy county in the state. Dairying is the leading occupation of the farming community. Many of the farmers have herds of as many as 100 and 125 Jersey and Guernsey cows and cream and butter are the leading products of the country.

Around Sequim and in the Dungeness Valley, however, there are 150 square miles of perfect farming country. Part of it is well wooded, and a farmer needs to have a good capital to go in. Returns more than atone for this, however, as the prosperity of the farmers who have been there for a few years indicates. There are lots of 100 acre farms entirely cleared around Sequim and one handsome barn about eight miles from Port Angeles cost $8,000. Grain and vegetables grow splendidly in the whole country about Port Angeles and such articles cost about one half in that city what they cost in Victoria.

Fine Irrigation System.

The Sequim district is typical prairie country and it was feared that the fertility of the soil would be taxed unless adequate irrigation was installed and the system which has been constructed is considered as fine a system as there is in the world. The foresight of the county in constructing it is shown in the fact that the yield all through the Dungeness Valley continues to increase year after year.

In its municipal affairs Port Angeles is on a sound basis. The assessed value of the municipality is $1,500,000. One lot is assessed at $650 and the adjoining two lots sold recently for $3,750 each and with this low assessment the municipality is conducting its current expenses on a cash basis. Bonds for local improvements are not allowed to extend beyond ten years and the heavy special assessments prevent speculators from holding land without using it. The old debt from 1893 is being paid off at the rate of $4,000 to $5,000 a year in spite of the big improvements going on each year.

Schools Well Developed.

Educationally Port Angeles is unusualy progressive. Its three schools and a high school employ 20 teachers. The enrollment in the high school is 90 and in the public schools 523. Commercial, manual training and domestic science departments are highly developed and playground work is being undertaken by the educational authorities. H. G. Beall of Victoria Y.M.C.A. was in Port Angeles this week talking playgrounds.

Arrangements with the Victoria High School for athletic contests are being sought also.

CHINAMAN TO DIE IN AUGUST NEXT

Soo Quon, Found Guilty of Murder, to Hang on Same Day as Atkinson

INSANITY PLEA BRINGS JURY'S RECOMMENDATION

John M. Telfer Convicted for Wounding and is Out on Suspended Sentence

For the second time at the present assizes the sentence of death has had to be pronounced in the case of a convicted murderer. Yesterday afternoon Soo Quon, who was also called Hing Fong by Chinese witnesses, was ordered for execution on Wednesday, August 6, the same date as has already been set for the execution of Atkinson.

Soo Quon was found guilty of the murder of Soo Mock Gun, a countryman, a cousin, in fact, who had been born in the same village and with whom he came to this country some few years ago. They were both employed in the Cameron lumber mill, and there, on October 12 last, Soo Quon attacked Soo Mock Gun with an axe, inflicting injuries from which the latter died soon after in the hospital. The murderer jumped into the waters of Victoria Arm immediately, as if to drown himself, but was quickly got out and placed under arrest.

The defence raised at the trial was that of insanity, and several witnesses of his own race told of his having delusions that he was being pursued by people and huge snakes that were wanting his life. To this the jury paid attention to the extent of adding a strong recommendation to mercy to its verdict.

Throughout the trial Soo Quon appeared to be indifferent to what was going on, although he did not seem to lack intelligence. When Yip Wing, the court interpreter, told him that he had been found guilty and must die he showed no more indication of a realization of this position than he had done before.

Close of the Trial.

After hearing Dr. G. A. B. Hall and Dr. Bapty as to the state of mind of Soo Quon, they considering he was insane when the crime was committed, when the court resumed in the afternoon the jury heard addresses from counsel.

J. Charles McIntosh, for the prisoner, made a strong appeal to the jury for his client, dwelling on the evidence which had been given as to his mental state and the delusions which he had entertained. The crown, he said, had shown no motive, so it could only have been due to insanity.

H. B. Robertson, crown prosecutor, contended that there was no evidence before the jury to show that the prisoner did not know that the act he was committing was wrong.

Mr. Justice Morrison explained to the jury the law in the matter, and told them it was for them to decide whether or not the prisoner was aware of the nature of his act. The crown, he instructed the jury, did not have to show motive; some of the greatest crimes were committed without apparent motive.

The jury was out for one hour and fifty minutes, returning with their verdict in the middle of the addresses to the jury in the Telfer case. His lordship at once proceeded to sentence the prisoner, doing so in the shortest possible form in view of his ignorance of the formal legal phrases which are usually employed. Soo Quon was then removed to the provincial jail.

Charged With Wounding.

John M. Telfer was placed in the dock, charged with the unlawful wounding of Aubrey L. Ohren, the offence taking place in front of the St. Francis hotel, Yates street, about 11.30 on the night of November 26 last. In the bill submitted to the grand jury there had been the more serious count of wounding with intent, but that body did not think the evidence justified a finding on it, so that the prisoner stood his trial on the lesser count.

R. C. Lowe conducted the defence.

The jury empannelled was: Charles Norton, N. T. Lee, F. K. Bellamy, Livingston Foster, F. H. Frye, P. J. Keatley, A. G. Whitfield, A. Douglas, David Thompson, Peter Callendar, J. A. Jeeves, J. R. Grice. The defence exhausted its peremptory challenges.

Aubrey L. Ohren, the man who was assailed, stated that he was on lower Yates street at 11.30 on the night of December 26, 1912. His hack was on the stand that night, but another man was driving. He was leaning up against a post outside the St. Francis hotel when some one came along and cut him up, inflicting wounds on the left side of the head and face and on his left hand. Bystanders took him into the hotel, and later his injuries were treated. At the time he did not know who cut him.

Cross-examined by Mr. Lowe, the witness said that there was no reason why the prisoner should have attacked him.

Corroborative Evidence.

Bernard F. Vye testified that he had been with Ohren and another when Telfer had come along and made a "pass" at one of them with a knife in his hand. Ohren had moved to the edge of the walk to light a cigarette and Telfer had made a couple of "passes" at him, cutting him first back of the ear and then on the hand. Witness had not known the accused before.

To Mr. Lowe witness said Telfer was drunk, mumbling to himself, and appeared to be running amuck like a man out of his senses.

Bert Yeomans was the third man in the party, and corroborated them as to the wounding.

That Telfer was "speechless drunk" was how witness characterized his condition, when asked in cross-examination.

Deputy Chief Palmer and Police Magistrate Jay were again called upon to identify a deposition made by the late Sergeant Clayards. The accused was arrested by that officer, who described him as sensible, but intoxicated.

Sergeant Webb had found the blood-stained pocket-knife, closed, down a grating about thirty inches below the surface of the sidewalk.

James Gould, hackman, spoke of being hired by accused and two others, who wanted to go to somewhere on Pembroke street. He had got them into the hack and was taking the blanket off his horse and taking off the weight when Telfer had got out of the hack, followed by his two friends. Telfer had made a "pass" at him, which witness dodged, and had then reached for his pocket. This was before the attack on Ohren.

Wilbert E. Hall had seen prisoner in front of the St. Francis quarrelling. Telfer had then come over to him and made a swing at him, and he had struck Telfer. A few minutes later he had seen accused make a run at Ohren. Witness had shouted a warning that the man had a knife, but was not heard in time.

Provincial Constable Allison had been called to the St. Francis hotel, where he had found Telfer lying on the sidewalk, with a knife cut on his hand. He had given the man first aid, and Sergeant Clayards had removed him to the city lock-up. Telfer was very drunk.

Case For the Defence.

Mr. Lowe, opening his case, told the jury that if his client was so intoxicated as to be unaware what he was doing he was entitled to an acquittal.

Constable Peter Brogan had been in charge of the city lock-up on the night in question. Prisoner had been very drunk and violent, having to be locked in a cell to protect other prisoners. He had a cut on his thumb, which witness dressed. There was about $60 in his pockets.

C. H. Behnsen and F. J. Popham were called as witnesses to character and both described him as honest.

Mrs. Telfer stated that when he had got home her husband was badly battered with cuts on his face and thumb and bruises on his temple from which he had not recovered for some days. His money was gone and he had evidently been knocked about. Before the incident he had been quite straight, and also since then, and he was always a good husband.

Sergeant Walker saw Telfer at the time he was put into the cab, and noticed that he was very drunk.

Mr. Lowe, addressing the jury, held that if it had been proved that there was no intent to commit injury the prisoner was entitled to an acquittal. Apparently he had become temporarily bereft of his senses. (Prisoner's statement.)

A statement by the prisoner was then read by counsel, in which Telfer set forth that he was born in Australia, had lived here five years, was married for two years, was a machinist by profession, but at present was keeping a cigar stand. On the night of Nov. 26 he had parted from his wife at the corner of Government and Yates streets to return to his stand on Johnson street. At the time he had his watch and $115 in cash on his person. On the way he had met two or three parties, steamboat men, and had several drinks at various saloons, two of which were the Omineca and the Rainier bar, and he remembered nothing more. Since then he had kept away from liquor.

Mr. Robertson informed the jury that the prisoner's condition at the time of the assault constituted no excuse for his actions, the law holding him responsible.

Mr. Justice Morrison charged the jurors that if drunkenness was contracted voluntarily it would not relieve a defendant from responsibility.

The jury was out for the better part of an hour and returned with a verdict of guilty, but considered that there were extenuating circumstances.

His lordship pointed out to accused the seriousness of his offence and by what a narrow margin he missed being on trial for murder. In the hope that the lesson would not be lost upon Telfer he allowed him out on suspended sentence.

RHEUMATISM KEPT HIM IN BED

Suffered Tortures Until "Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him

McMillan's Corner, Ont., Sept. 30th, 1910.

"Your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives' is a perfect panacea for Rheumatism. For years I suffered distressing pain from Sciatica or Sciatic Rheumatism, being laid up several times a year for days at a time. I went to different doctors, who told me there was no use doing anything—it would pass away. They gave me mustard plasters and other remedies that did no good. Plasters took no effect on me—except to blister me and make raw spots. I took many advertised remedies without benefit, but fortunately, about two years ago, I got 'Fruit-a-tives' and they cured me.

"Since then, I take 'Fruit-a-tives' occasionally and keep free of pain. I am satisfied 'Fruit-a-tives' cured me of Rheumatism, and they will cure anyone who takes them as directed. If this letter would be of value to you, publish it.—JOHN B. McDONALD."

Indeed, this letter is of value to us and to the thousands of sufferers from Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago and Neuralgia. It points the way to a certain cure. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50; trial size, 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

THE PASSING SHOW

Maud Adams.

A good deal of the charm of "Peter Pan," in which Miss Adams is to be seen at the Victoria theatre Wednesday, May 28 (curtain at 8 o'clock), assuredly lies in the manner in which the work is acted and stage-managed. Barrie, himself, must have felt in writing his whimsical and fantastic creation that its success would be due in no small measure to how it was done; over done it might lose its effect entirely. Through his manuscript run long explanations to the players describing just how he wants his characters portrayed. Explicit and minute are all these explanations and descriptions and the keynote of them all is naturalness. Miss Adams has always seen to it that the author's instructions were carried out to the letter. The production is an elaborate one and its unfolding here is being awaited with interest.

Rainey Hunt Pictures.

There is quite a baby colony among the wild animals caught by the camera on Paul J. Rainey's expedition to British East Africa, motion pictures of which will be shown and described for three nights at the Victoria theatre, starting next Thursday, May 29. There is a baby elephant which the mother chastises because it insists in drinking before the hole is cleaned out for it; there is a baby rhino which consumes vast quantities of milk, and baby ostriches less than a week old caught on the veldt, running hither and thither.

Empress Theatre.

Edward Barnes and Mabel Robinson are the prime jollers of the Empress bill for this week. Much originality marks their piano and singing duologue, their jokes abound and Barnes' piano-playing has a humorous side, too. Agnes Lee presents The Test with her company displaying dramatic talent and thrills. The attraction of the bill is Jimmy Britt, the former lightweight champion, who tells of his early boyhood fights south of Market street in San Francisco. Charlotte entertains with violin solos and is popular, and the Wheelers' company provide the closing act and enough fun to send all away with the best kind of memories of the show.

WHAT WILL SENATE DO WITH NAVY BILL

That is the Question Now Agitating Political Circles in Ottawa

FATEFUL DEBATE WILL COMMENCE TO-MORROW

Appeals and Threats Not Likely to Influence Action of Members

Ottawa, May 15.—Deputy Speaker Blondin, after having escaped censure for getting the government out of a hole by the simple expedient of seeing Premier Borden first, and the Liberal amendments having been voted down one after another by the faithful and industrious majority, the Navy Bill passes its third reading in the House of Commons and hereafter interest shifts to the Senate.

As a matter of fact, the Senate is the best place for it. Everything that has happened to the bill since last Friday night has been in the nature of working a dead horse. So far as the Commons is concerned the thing cumbers the ground. Blondin wasn't worth censuring any more than the Hon. Bruno Nantel, whom Quebec knows as Le Gros Legume. Both have that order of intelligence which feeds lighted cigars to the elephant. Some of Blondin's rulings are as comical as Bob Mantell's Hamlet, but that's neither here nor there. The point is that the Navy Bill kept getting riper every day for the last rites in the Senate, and they didn't move it a day too soon. What will the Senate do with it? Well, that question needs some answering. Perhaps the best way to answer it is to ask: What would you do with it if you were the Senate and had a straight Liberal majority of twenty-five? Would you spare the rod and spoil the Tory child or would you give it all that was coming to it? The senators know mighty well what they are going to do to the bill, but they're not telling. At the same time they can't keep people from guessing. One sure thing is that they know all the arguments, having leaned over the railing of their gallery in the Green Chamber many's the time so as not to miss a word of what they were saying down below. They cupped their ears so as to catch every syllable and they didn't go home until the adjournment bell rang. As the old song says:

"How the old folks would enjoy it!
They would sit all night and listen."

Well, the Senate's listening days are over, and the talking days begin. The Senate may be expected to get at the marrow of the subject right away, for the senators are better debaters than their colleagues in the Commons. Being beyond and above all general elections, they make no addresses to any jury except their own feelings and opinions. They cut out the non-essentials—the flag-waving, the hemming and hawing and the see-sawing for votes, and they get down to business. Although they have their party leanings, they are on the whole conservative, and become more so with advancing years. If they jump on the Navy Bill, it won't be because it's Tory, but because it's not Canadian.

Attempts are being made to frighten the Senate. That sagacious organ, the Ottawa Journal, hints, for example, that the Senate will be reformed if it kills the Navy Bill. This threat leaves the senators quite unruffled, and for several reasons. In the first place, they feel that the Senate will last out their time; in the second place, they haven't much fear of Senate changes so long as the government refuses to open two Ontario constituencies to give Major Beattie and Sam Barker the senatorships they sigh for; in the third place, there couldn't be any amendment of the B.N.A. Act without a general election, followed by a two-thirds consenting vote of the British parliament; and in the fourth place, many of them believe that Senate reform along the lines of direct election by the people for a term of ten years or less would be the ultimate saving of the institution. Wherefore the Senate is unafraid. It has the government going and coming. It has a heart for any fate, but it simply won't be bluffed out.

Prayers, threats, tears, entreaties being quite useless to move the Senate, salve is now being applied. Little paragraphs, manufactured in the press room on Parliament Hill, are cabled over to the London Daily Telegraph, the Morning Post and the Times, and are by those newspapers cabled back to Canada, saying what a staunch Imperialist Sir George Ross, the leader of the Liberal Opposition in the Senate, is, and how England, meaning the Times or the Morning Post or the Daily Telegraph, or whichever one is sending the dispatch, expects every man, particularly Sir George, to do his duty. This cable trick, which is old enough to have whiskers, doesn't land as many Canadian statesmen as it used to, the practice of making up our own minds independently of the London Morning Post having grown much during recent years. Besides, as several people have pointed out, the question belongs quite as much to the Liberal Opposition in the Senate as it does to the Liberal leader of the Opposition. There are fifty-four Liberals in the Senate, of whom Sir George Ross is one.

According to the wiseacres, the Senate is being invited to destroy itself by killing the Agricultural Aid Bill and the Highways Bill as it did last session. This is the way they figure it out: If the Senate kills the Agricultural Aid Bill and the Highways Bill, but does not kill the Navy Bill, nothing can be said. If the Senate kills the Navy Bill, but does not kill the Agricultural Aid Bill and the Highways Bill, nothing can be said. But if the Senate kills all three bills the government can rise up on its hind legs and call the Senate an ogre and a dragon and ask the people to puncture the bloody monster. This looks plausible, but what is more likely is that the government counts on saving something out of the shuffle. Almost any one of the three would do. Perhaps the Agricultural Aid Bill and the Highways Bill would be more real help to their parents. If the Navy Bill is choked off no tears will be shed, because it was a bad baby anyway. Besides, things have turned up since last November, enterprises nearer home have experienced emergencies on which $33,000,000 could be lent to better advantage. The stone wall isn't so thick that the Senate can't see through it. In fact, the Senate has it all its own way.

My prophecy is that the Senate is going to surprise the Borden government by its moderation. The Senate will only kill such bills as need killing, perhaps one, perhaps two, perhaps three. In any case, the Navy Bill will probably get it where Mary wore the beads. I am quite sure the Senate will do nothing foolish. An old bird is not caught with chaff, and the Senate is full of old birds. The aggregate age of the senate is 5,725 years, divided among 83 senators. There should be 57 senators, but there are four vacancies at present, all from Ontario. The average age of a senator works out at 69 years, which leads me to believe that senators will generally look before they leap, being stiff in the joints, as they near three score and ten.

Other figures of a comparative nature throw light on what may happen to the Navy Bill in the Senate. There are 54 Liberals in the Senate and 29 Conservatives. The aggregate age of the Liberal senators is 3,629 years, and the average of a Liberal senator is 67 years. The aggregate age of the Conservative senators is 2,096 years, and the average age of a Conservative senator is 72 years. The Conservative senators, you will observe, are outnumbered all roun'. What's more, the Liberal senator is five years younger. Considering weight for age and the ground to be covered, I think the Liberals are going to win in the Senate.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR HAIR BEAUTIFUL

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works Wonders, Stops Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple old fashioned home recipe consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (de composee), and a little Menthol Crystals. These three mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and ½ dr. Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in an 8 oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use and you cannot find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your scalp as tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear and itching cease. In ten days you will find fine downy new hairs sprouting up all over your scalp and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity.

Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its result.

BIRTHDAY CALENDAR

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY

Applying yourself steadily and with interest to your daily routine, will be your best course. Seek recreation, but avoid the frivolous and trashy, for into your chosen circle will come one who will influence your life.

Those born to-day will have good dispositions, trustworthy reasoning powers and will, early in life, take a stand for the right as they understand it. Their worldly success depends, therefore, upon the breadth and truth of their early education.

TO-DAY IN CANADIAN HISTORY

Simon Fraser, the son of a United Empire Loyalist (who was captured at Saratoga, and died in an American prison) was brought by his mother to Canada, and at the age of sixteen entered the employment of the North West Company. Eight or ten years later he became a partner, and chanced to be one of those in charge at Fort William when Selkirk descended upon that station to wreak vengeance upon the enemies of his hapless Red River settlers. But Fraser's name is deservedly remembered as one of the great explorers of the West. In 1805 he had been sent "to occupy" the regions west of the Rocky Mountains for the North West Company. Accordingly "he set up on the Pack river the first permanent post" built within the boundaries of what is now British Columbia; and, on May 22nd, 1806, he started down what he supposed to be the Columbia, but it proved to be another stream, which, in his honor, has been named the Fraser. It was a terrible journey down the deep mountain canyons, on the bosom of the mad, rock-vexed, racing current, and Fraser and his bold companions have had few successors in their daring exploit.

One of the most distinguished of the Canadian educators of the last century was Alexander Burns, who died in Toronto thirteen years ago to-day. He was born in Castlewellan, Ireland, in 1834, and emigrated to this country at the age of thirteen. He was graduated at Victoria College, Toronto, in 1861. For ten years, beginning in 1868, he was president of Wesleyan Ladies' College in Hamilton. Some of his religious views did not meet with the approval of his fellow Methodists, and in 1882 he was the defendant in a heresy trial conducted by the Ontario Methodist conference, but was acquitted.

Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., was born in Freetown, Prince Edward island, fifty-nine years ago to-day, the son of Robert and Lydia Schurman. He was educated in Canada, England, Scotland, France and Germany, at the universities of London, Edinburgh, Paris, Heidelberg, Berlin and Gottingen, and also studied in Italy. He was the winner, in 1875, of the Gilchrist scholarship for Canada at the University of London. Returning to Canada in 1880, he became professor of English literature, political economy and psychology at Acadia College, Nova Scotia. In 1882 he went to Dalhousie College, Halifax, as professor of metaphysics and English literature, remaining there four years, and in the meantime was honored with election as honorary life-governor of University College, London. Dr. Schurman left Canada twenty-seven years ago to accept the chair of Sage professor of philosophy at Cornell, and became president of that great institution in 1892. Although long an expatriate, Dr. Schurman has never lost interest in his native land, and keeps in close touch with Canadian affairs, men and measures.

SCRAP BOOK.

Musical World Celebrates Wagner Centenary To-day.

Wilhelm Richard Wagner, the immortal operatic composer and reformer of the musical drama, was born in Leipsic one hundred years ago to-day, and the centenary will be observed throughout Europe and America. Wagner festivals, commemorating the genius of the musical rebel, have been held, or will take place within the next few days, in many cities on this side of the Atlantic, as well as in Germany and England. The man who was forced to fight long and valiantly for his revolutionary operatic principles, and who was often reviled and denounced by critics and public, will to-day be hailed as the greatest composer of his time—perhaps of all time.

Leipsic, where he was born; Dresden, where he won his first operatic success, and from which city he later fled, an exile, because of his participation in the political agitations of 1849; Konigsberg, where he was for a time a conductor, and where he married Fraulein Wilhelmina Planer, an actress; Riga, where he was also engaged as a conductor. Zurich, where he spent his exile, and produced most of his literary works, as well as outlining his famous tetralogy, "Der ring des Nibelungen," and other operas; London, where he conducted concerts with great success in 1855; Venice, where he completed "Tristan und Isolde"; Paris, where he went in 1859 and negotiated the production of "Tannhauser" at the grand opera—a miserable failure, due to a clique that determined to suppress both the piece and its composer; Vienna, where Wagner heard his "Lohengrin" for the first time; Munich, where he lived for a time after 1862, when he received a pardon for his political offenses, and was permitted to return to Germany; Baireuth, where he completed "Der Ring," and where he died thirty years ago—all of those cities and others connected with the life of the great musical genius will hold impressive centenary celebrations to-day.

Perhaps the most noteworthy of the day's observances will be at Baireuth, long a mecca for Wagner lovers, and the scene of the memorable productions of "Parsifal." From 1868 to his death in 1883 Wagner resided permanently in Baireuth, in a house named Wahnfried, in the garden of which he himself built the tomb in which his remains now rest. The copyright on "Parsifal" will expire at the end of this year, a petition asking for its extension having been refused by the Imperial parliament. Under the copyright the heirs of Wagner have confined the production of "Parsifal" to Baireuth—a monopoly immensely profitable both to the heirs and to the people of the little city.

Frau Cosima Wagner, widow of the composer, has led in the movement to confine "Parsifal" to Baireuth, and declares that in so doing she is carrying out the wishes of her husband, who expressed a desire that the opera should never be produced outside his own theatre. In America "Parsifal" has already been produced many times, and productions are now being arranged for in several European cities.

Wagner was a man of many love affairs. His first marriage, entered upon at the age of twenty-three with Wilhelmina Planer, was a failure. Cosima, his last wife, who is still living and who receives a royalty of $25,000 a year from her husband's works, was the wife of Hans von Buelow, the pianist, when she first met the composer. It was a case of love at first sight, and Von Buelow accommodatingly secured a divorce that they might wed. "The Good Hans," as he is called by Wagnerians, in praise for his "sacrifice," was not so pliant as he seemed, and privately entertained a fierce animosity toward the genius who had stolen his wife. "If he were not a genius, and only some one I could kill, Wagner would have been dead before this," Von Buelow once remarked to a friend.

AFRAID OF HIMSELF

A gentleman who is trustee for an estate or is too old to engage in business might be excused for keeping an unnecessary amount of money on deposit in a bank.

If he does not belong to either of the above classes then he is "afraid of himself"; his business training has been neglected and he is doing his fellowmen a great injustice by not keeping his money at work in legitimate channels. If he was gifted with an average amount of brains and interested as he should be in the things that go to build up a prosperous city he should know that he could make four or five times Bank interest on his capital without an atom of chance attached to it.

We trust the above will be food for thought for someone and we stand to back up our arguments with solid facts, and long experience.

FRENCHMEN BUYING CANADIAN BONDS

Adviser to French Minister of Commerce in City To-day

THINKS INTERNATIONAL SITUATION SECURE

France and Germany Now Vieing Over Canadian Investments

As adviser to the French minister of commerce, it is the business of Mons. Michel Laglenne, who arrived in Victoria to-day, to give an annual account to his chief of the amount of trade between France and Canada and between other countries and Canada. Last year he found that the trade of Germany with the Dominion was increasing much more rapidly than that between this country and France, and he felt it his duty to report this condition of affairs very forcibly. Consequently French merchants have been advised to invest much more freely in Canadian markets, with the result that the business between the two countries is vastly increasing.

"For France has lots of money to invest," said M. Laglenne this morning. "Her people have long been in the habit of taking their gold and putting it gently away in a safe place.

"Why? I think the real reason is that they were afraid of war, and the crash that such a cataclysm would bring in the banks and other financial institutions. The result, however, is that as far as ready money is concerned France is probably the richest country in the world to-day."

Asked as to the reason of his visit here, M. Laglenne said: "No, I am not here in any capacity as 'counseiller du Commerce Exterieur de la France,' but as the representative of the great firm of Beaubien & Company, whom I have the honor to represent in our own capital. I am here to look over the ground to see if certain Canadian bonds and stocks are likely to be profitable. I need hardly say that I am more than satisfied with everything that I have seen. It is my first visit to the Dominion, and it is a wonderful country—wonderful!"

International Relations.

When questioned as to what he thought of the international relations in Europe, M. Laglenne remarked:

"The entente is very strong these days between Britain and France, and the war cloud is, I am sure, passing. I think the truth is that Germany is not rich enough to fight. She would be crippled in a very short time. Yes, I think everything will blow over. Slowly perhaps, but surely.

"What I like about Victoria," M. Laglenne said later, "is that like Paris it has so many beautiful flowers and trees everywhere. I wake in the morning and I see the flowers smiling below my window and I know why so many people are so anxious to come and live in Canada. I have been now in almost every part of it, and I like it so much.

"Of course I shall be glad to get back to Paris, and even to my office in the Square de l'Opera, where the traffic pours by as in a flume. We are getting so cosmopolitan too these days, and there are no fewer than 200,000 Americans in our city.

"Paris the golden; why, she is the hub of the world!"

JOINT CONCERT AT ARENA.

Carnival Week to Be Featured by Union of Victoria and Seattle Musical Clubs.

Carnival week may be featured by another attraction, which may take place at the Arena. There will be a joint concert given by the Tacoma Orpheus Club and the Arion Club, Victoria, for which special soloists will be engaged. The offer of the skating Arena by Mr. Patrick has inspired the committee to new efforts along the lines of musical entertainment. F. Sehl and William Galt are working on the proposed scheme, and Major Beale has reported that several of the regimental bands visiting the city during the week may be able to assist in the programme.

L. O. L., 1610, TO MARCH

Visiting members are requested to join. The service begins at St. John's church, at 2.30, when Rev. A. J. S. Ard will be the preacher. The Boy Scouts' band will play on the march.

HARRY ERSKINE MISSING

Harry Erskine, a member of the Victoria Painters' Union has been missing since Saturday and his hat and coat were found on the shore of Tod Inlet Sunday. He was seen Saturday by his nephew along the Malahat drive near Mill bay. A provincial constable went out with the nephew Monday in search of him but discovered no trace, and he is still missing. SHOOTING CHARGE TRIED IN ASSIZE

John C. Pendleton Arraigned for Firing at Mrs. Campbell

DEFENCE CLAIMS HE WAS NOT RESPONSIBLE

Prisoner Had Been Drinking Heavily and Swore He Did Not Remember

John C. Pendleton was put on his trial in the assize court this morning, the charge against him being that on May 6 he shot Mrs. Ella Campbell, wife of Harry Campbell, proprietor of the Blue Post Inn, 788 Johnson street. There were two counts to the indictment, one of shooting with intent to kill and the other of shooting with intent to do grievous bodily harm.

Mrs. Campbell, the victim of the shooting, is still in hospital, and had to be carried into court in a chair, attended by a nurse. On the conclusion of her evidence she was taken back to the hospital.

J. A. Aikman defended the prisoner, and H. B. Robertson conducted the prosecution.

The following jury was sworn: F. H. Frye, foreman; T. E. Astley, J. R. Grice, Charles Norton, H. L. Clay, George Wise, T. S. Mills, J. Davis, Charles Irving, P. R. Little, A. J. Abbott and J. S. Petch.

Mrs. Campbell's Story.

Mrs. Campbell, whose chair had to be placed in front of the jury box so that her faint voice might be heard by the jurors, told her story of the shooting. She had been in the kitchen of her home about noon on May 6, when Pendleton came in and asked her when she was going to the Springs, and she had replied that she was going on Thursday. She had then gone into the pantry to wash the dishes, and Pendleton had come to the door. Standing about a yard from her he had pointed a revolver at her and fired, the shot going through her arm.

Before he fired she had got her hand on the revolver. Pendleton had fired a second time, the bullet going through her knee. She screamed, and her husband had come in. After that she had remembered nothing.

Pendleton, she said, had been a bartender in her husband's employ up to about a year ago. She knew of no reason why he should have attacked her.

To Mr. Aikman Mrs. Campbell said that Pendleton drank a great deal, which was the reason her husband had discharged him.

Harry Campbell stated that the prisoner and another man were in the bar shortly before the crime, and had two drinks of stout. At that time he was perfectly sober. Pendleton did drink a great deal, and this was why witness had discharged him. A month later he had had some words with his former employe, who objected to his having a man work in the bar for a couple of hours one day because he was not in the union.

Fired Four Shots.

A few minutes after serving Pendleton witness had heard a noise in the kitchen, and then his little boy had run in shouting that his mother was being shot. He had found Pendleton flourishing a gun, and his wife screaming. Catching hold of the man's right hand he had forced the gun upward, and as he did so Pendleton had fired twice over his head. Witness had reached up for the revolver, taken it from the accused and thrown it on the floor.

Dr. George Hall described the wounds on the right arm and the right knee. The first was a flesh wound, but the second might possibly leave the joint stiff, although it might become all right in time.

Found Prisoner Dazed.

Sergeant Webb had been called to the house after the shooting, where he had found Mrs. Campbell shot. On the floor he found the revolver which was produced, loaded with five shells, four of which had been discharged and one was still undischarged. Pendleton he found lying in the pantry, and with the assistance of License Inspector Hatcher he lifted him out. The accused was dazed and had a cut on the right side of the head.

Sale of Weapon.

Jacob Aaronson took the oath on the Gospels in the usual way, to which Mr. Aikman took objection as not being in accordance with the religious faith of the witness.

The court: "Do you consider that this oath you have taken is of binding force on your conscience?"

Witness: "I do."

Mr. Aikman, however, persisted in his objection, and Aaronson was instructed to go for his hat. He then took the oath on the Old Testament and covered.

On May 5, witness said, the accused had purchased a revolver at his store, and he had taken the usual receipt from him. This was signed by Pendleton with his own initials, John C., but with another surname.

Before this was put in, Mr. Aikman pointed out that it was dated May 7.

Question of Receipt.

Aaronson explained that he discovered this mistake when he read of the shooting. That it was the receipt for this particular weapon was proven by its giving the maker's number of the revolver. Pendleton bought some revolver shells from him at the same time.

To Mr. Aikman he denied that he had gone to the police about this matter, or been visited by the police. In accordance with the law, he said, the police got notice of all sales of this nature. He resented Mr. Aikman's suggestion that he had mis-dated the receipt because he saw Pendleton was drunk, and feared that if the man did anything he himself would get into trouble for selling the weapon.

Mr. Robertson: "What was the condition of the prisoner when he bought the revolver?"

Witness: "He was sober."

Opening the defence, Mr. Aikman said there would be no denial of the shooting, but at the time and for days previously Pendleton had been drinking steadily.

John B. Swanson, whose place of business is next to Pendleton's, swore that on the day of the shooting the prisoner was very drunk.

Prisoner's Evidence.

Pendleton went into the box in his own behalf and swore that he remembered nothing of having been in the Blue Post or having shot Mrs. Campbell. He explained the purchase of the revolver by saying that he was camping out at Cadboro Bay and wanted it when he was going home at night.

Mr. Robertson cross-examined the prisoner closely on the point of his remembrance of the events for the two or three days previous to the shooting. Pendleton recollected that he had paid $4.50 for the revolver and wanted it to protect himself, and also that he had been in his own store at various times, but he stuck to it that he had no memory of the crime.

Mr. Aikman asked the jury to reduce the charge to one of assault, or aggravated assault.

Mr. Robertson contended that the evidence proved the crown's case, and that there was no proof of the accused not being fully aware of the nature of his act.

Lee Chong There.

Lee Chong, accused of the theft of a gun, was called yesterday afternoon but made default. The court ordered that his sureties be ordered to be in court this morning. When court opened Lee Chong was on hand and will be tried this afternoon.

Alfred Deakin, who is accused of the theft of logs belonging to the B. C. Lumber Co., has had his case traversed to the fall assizes owing to the illness of his counsel, and his bail of $500 was renewed.

The crown prosecutor informed the court that Mrs. Ross, accused of procuring, intended to elect for a speedy trial before the county court judge.

Mr. Justice Morrison reserved sentence until to-morrow morning on Pendleton, who was found guilty this afternoon. In the meantime his counsel will bring character evidence.

IN THE FRENCH DANCE

OBITUARY RECORD

The funeral took place this morning of Mrs. Sarah Macdowall, widow of the late John B. Macdowall. The cortege proceeded from the late residence, 2107 Blanchard street, to St. Andrew's cathedral, where Rev. Father Macdonald conducted solemn requiem mass. There was a large attendance of friends, and a great number of beautiful floral tributes. Rev. Father Laterme officiated at the graveside, and the following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. W. Gordon, F. C. Pink, P. Everett, F. L. Redgrave, W. Paterson and Thos. Shaw.

The death occurred last evening of Sarah Meakin, wife of F. C. Meakin, of Vancouver, who passed away at the residence of Mr. E. B. Paul, 901 Richmond avenue, where she had been visiting for the last six weeks. The deceased, who was 51 years of age, was born in Alma, Illinois, and had lived in Canada for the last thirty-four years. She is survived by her husband. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 from the residence of Mr. Paul, Rev. Dr. Scott officiating.

Right through the Boy Scout movement there is the spirit of unselfishness, chivalry and loyalty, which will lead boys to become good citizens.—The Bishop of Winchester.

OLD ENGLISH FAIR OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY

Crowds Attend Formal Opening by the Lieutenant-Governor

SKATING ARENA IS A BIG ROSE GARDEN

Dances, Songs and Tableaux to Delight the Visitor; Performance May Continue

The Old English Fair, for which the various chapters of the Daughters of the Empire have been preparing for many weeks past, and to which Victorians have been looking forward with keen anticipation during the last fortnight, was formally opened at 3 o'clock this afternoon by His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, who expressed his pleasure at being present and complimented the ladies upon their energy and enterprise in undertaking so vast a project. Congratulating the chapters on the beautiful results of their efforts at decoration, His Honor concluded by wishing the organization every success in their undertaking.

His Honor and Mrs. Paterson, the latter beautifully gowned in flowered blue silk, and wearing a black hat with blue feathers, were attended by H. J. Muskett, the guard of honor being formed by Boy Scouts and High School Cadets, while the several chapters of the Doughters of the Empire, arranged in costumed groups according to chapter, formed a picturesque audience at the opening part of the proceedings.

Hall Decorated

The hall, which, however, has been decorated more particularly with a view to the effect by artificial light, looked beautiful this afternoon. The centre of the great floor is occupied by a small dancing parquet studded round with rose trees in full bloom, while overhead long festoons of roses and ivy depend from the huge lamps, and link with each. Garlands of the same brilliant bloom with ivy are draped along the faces of the boxes along the sides, while flags and ensigns suspended along either side of the high roof of the hall, call attention to the Imperial character of the undertaking.

The rose-entwined trellises and archways, however, which flank the sides and entrance-end of the big floor, and form the booths occupied by the several chapters, are the most effective part of the decorations, and give the hall the veritable appearance of the old English rose-garden after which the fair derives its name. So realistic is the effect that one almost anticipates birds, bees, and butterflies among the blooms, this want, however, to be supplied by the human elves and hobgoblins and fairies who will emerge this evening from behind the scenes and entertain the visitors with their rollicking dances.

Crowds Attended.

Crowds of visitors were present this afternoon at the opening ceremony, and the stalls are already doing a rushing business. Immediately to the left of the entrance is the rose-concealed candy stall in charge of the Agnes Deans Cameron Chapter, where toothsome home-made sweeties, attractively displayed in pretty boxes, form a tempting-looking salesroom. This is in charge of Mrs. Macfarland, assisted by members of the chapter, all the ladies wearing picturesque Dolly Varden costume. To the right of the doorway is an equally attractive booth, one of the largest in the Arena, where the Gonzales Chapter, in charge of their regent, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, are doing a good business in fancy bags, etc. These ladies, wearing dainty French grisette costumes, with caps and white aprons, look decidedly businesslike, while their advantageous position almost assures them of excellent receipts.

One of the most picturesquely-dressed chapter is the Camosun, the members of which, wearing Georgian costume, and under direction of their regent, Mrs. Henry Croft, have a most enticing collection of lamp shades, cushions and fancy work.

An art gallery which will be worthy of a visit is in charge of the Lady Douglas Chapter, under management of its energetic regent, Mrs. R. B. McMicking, and in the same booth Mrs. Davis will conduct a beauty parlor which is guaranteed not to disfigure its clients. Breton costume is being worn by the attendants at this booth, while little Mary and Frampton Rattenbury, dressed as a Dresden shepherdess and shepherd, are vending powder puffs and patches from a Sedan chair.

Fortune Telling.

That belief in legerdemain and witchcraft is not entirely dead is evidenced by the interest which is being taken in the Navy League Chapter department, where fortune telling by black-browed gypsies is drawing many who wish a glimpse into their futures. Mrs. William Roper is in charge of this, while attendants preside at the bran tub and guessing contests which form part of the many other attractions prepared for the delectation of the visitor.

True to its title the Florence Nightingale chapter, in charge of the regent, Mrs. Hasell, and Miss Munro, has on sale a complete supply of first-aid supplies, bandages, invalid comforts, hot water bottles, knee-bags, and all manner of useful bed and sick-room accessories. Appropriately dressed as Red Cross nurses the chapter may well anticipate doing a flourishing business, while their enterprise has extended to a further department which is proving one of the greatest attractions to the visitors to the exhibition.

Tea Room Popular.

The tea room is situated on the balcony just above the Florence Nightingale chapter's booth, and which is accessible by way of the steps leading from the entrance to the right of the stall. The decorations here are in the color of the order, red, and the refreshments, served in such dainty surroundings, appear particularly dainty and appetizing.

Another chapter remains to be mentioned, this being the Esquimalt chapter, which, in charge of Mrs. G. F. Matthews, keeps a realistic-looking Oriental bazaar with rich Indian and Japanese embroideries, Chinese inlaid work, Eastern rugs, and sweet-smelling sandal-wood boxes. Turkish coffee and cigarettes are also sold here, and contribute to the Eastern atmosphere.

Children's Chapters.

Two extremes of childish affection are displayed in the booths in charge of the two children's chapters, the Rainbow chapter (regent, Mrs. Captain Foulkes) having a very fragrant booth of cut flowers, bouquets, buttonnieres, plants, etc., which a number of the little folks also vend about the hall from baskets. Attached to this pretty booth is a rest-room which will be gratefully sought out by tired visitors.

The Coronation Day Chapter, representing about 2,500 of the school children of Victoria, and in charge of its enthusiastic regent, Mrs. R. S. Day, affords the visitor with another form of grateful refreshment in the delicious ice-creams which it serves to its patrons, the waiters wearing snowy white aprons and caps. A shooting gallery, in charge of Mrs. Turner, is another of the many attractions, and a handsome little cup has been presented for competition in connection with this.

Nymph Dance

During the afternoon the nymph dance, part of the beautiful woodland scene which will be given in its entirety both this evening and to-morrow evening, was given on the small enclosed area in the middle of the hall, giving a foretaste of the nature of the performance which scores of dancers have been rehearsing for under direction of Miss McFadden for weeks past. Mr. Heaton's orchestra provided the music for this, as well as dispensing music at intervals during the entire afternoon. Madame Clarice Davis, M.R.C.M., and Mme. Marie wood are also contributing to this afternoon's programme by singing solos, and the former will sing again to-morrow afternoon for the pleasure of the guests at that time.

The entrance charge for the Fair has been made uniform by decision of the committee, and will be fifty cents in the evening and twenty-five cents in the afternoon. So successful has the big enterprise proved in the short time it has been opened, that the chapters are already entertaining the idea of keeping the fair open for a few days next week.

It is also rumored that drumhead services will be held in the arena on Sunday, and considering the Empirical nature of the project, it is more than probable that all the churches would willingy join in making such an event a huge success.

IN QUAKER DANCE

S. H. Emery, Who Will Be Here With Australians

Emery's score of 143 and the fine, dashing innings that he played in this city last year are still fresh in the memory of all cricket enthusiasts. During the last tour Emery secured the whole ten wickets against Bermuda and was the first member of the last Australian team in England to secure fifty wickets. Of his most recent performance at Sydney "the Referee" says, "The fireworks were provided by Emery who made 61 in 35 minutes, hitting five 6's and four 4's. As he scored well against Balmain Emery has struck his old form with the bat, hard wickets being very much more to his taste than the soft ones of England."

Emery made himself very popular while here last October and he will receive a hearty welcome from all cricketers and lovers of the game on his return next Tuesday.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE

LEONARD GARVER,
International Director.

One of the most significant social phenomena of the times is the wonderful growth of fraternalism. While institutions that have flourished for centuries seem to be waning, this manifestation of the social spirit seems to be increasing, fraternities are springing up everywhere. Perhaps a reason for this is the practical value of the provision for the emergencies of life. They care for the material needs of men and meet the instinctive desire for friendly relations.

The Loyal Order of Moose is one of the youngest of these fraternities, and one of the strongest. The gates are guarded. No one is received to membership who is not morally and physically fit. This protects the men who are in as well as those who are coming in, and assures them of the security of their benefits.

The financial benefits are $10 a week for sickness or accident, and $100 for funeral expenses.

The initiation fee is $5 under the open Charter. The special dispensation granted by the Supreme Dictator closes June 30. If you intend joining, join now, as the initiation fee will probably soon be raised to $25.

Call on or write to Mr. Leonard Garver, Dominion Hotel, or Moose Club Rooms, 1612 Douglas street (Fairfield Hotel Block), for application or further information.

LEADING RAILS ARE MOVING IN MARKET

Wall Street Gives Good Account of Itself With Improvement

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

New York, May 22.—The stock market gave a good account of itself throughout the session, and the fluctuations in leading rails more especially of Union Pacific was conducive to an improvement in sentiment. The latter advanced to 152, a gain of three points from yesterday's close, and Reading, Southern Pacific, Brooklyn and Canadian Pacific were generally leaders in strength. Even the low-priced issues, in which so much pressure has been exerted of late, showed firmer tendencies. Conflicting news is in evidence as to proposed plans for currency legislation, also the money market is being studied carefully, particularly in the movement and demand from the interior.

KOOTENAY GOLD IS CENTRE OF INTEREST

Numerous Sales This Morning at 12 and 12¼ With Firm Closing Bids

Victoria, May 22.—Interest centered in Kootenay Gold on the stock exchange this morning, numerous sales being recorded at 12@12¼, with firm bids at the closing of market. Others of the list that were stronger included Canada Consolidated, Granby Smelter, Snowstorm and Pacific Loan.

Coronation Gold remained as yesterday, showing a despondent tone, the stock being offered at 87. The effect of the second dividend payment in International Coal has been practically nil, and action of this issue is disappointing to many.

GRAIN FLASHES.

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

Chicago—Many extravagant claims of damage made, but if only half true concerning Kansas, early expectations for that state must be greatly modified.

Liverpool—Wheat opened ⅞ up, closed ⅞ to 1c. up.

Clearances: Wheat and flour, 579,000 bushels; corn, 49,000 bushels; oats, 220,000 bushels.

Chicago—It is estimated that commission houses sold fully 800,000 bushels of wheat at the opening and immediately after.

St. Louis—Cash wheat ½ higher; corn 1 higher; oats 1 to 2 higher.

New York Cotton.—There is a steady accumulation of the distant months generally believed to be for trade interests.

New York—Decline in United States Steel Corporation second collateral trust 5 per cent. bonds puts them in line with other issues that declined earlier. The bonds are now lower than in time of panic.

New York—The city bonds that are being offered at 100½ are being stopped, indicating that buying orders are coming in.

New York—A little selling of Canadian Pacific by London to-day.

New York—Baltimore & Ohio ask for authority to issue ten million dollars trust certificates.

New York—Indications are that plan of Southern and Union dissolution will work out satisfactorily.

YESTERDAY'S BUYERS WERE SELLERS TO-DAY

Chicago Wheat Market Has Bearish Tendency Towards Close of Session

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

Chicago, May 22.—Action in wheat for to-day was conservative, considerable selling on the part of some active buyers of yesterday on further advance early in the session. Something in the nature of a bearish demonstration by some of the pit leaders developed in the last hour and the market in the end was ⅜ lower than high for yesterday for the early months, and about steady for September contracts. Best advices this morning from the Southwest confirmed very much of the damage indicated in yesterday's news. The chief injury to the crop to date appears to be confined largely to the Southwest corner of Kansas, but the territory is said to include 10 or 15 of the large wheat counties. A few of the big wheat counties on the side of this prescribed section are also showing signs of lower condition. The trade had some bullish news from St. Louis as there had been a shortage of rainfall both sides of the river of late, and Mr. Inglis confirmed the claim of yesterday that the crop had gone back in some of the big wheat counties in Illinois.

SUCTION FLY TRAP

Insects Lured to Vicinity and Then Are Drawn Inside.

Pretty soon the summer campaign against flies will be under way, and among the various new forms of traps invented, one of the most ingenious is that by a Wyoming man. This man believes in taking no chances about the flies entering the trap, and has provided means to draw them in when they get close. A cylindrical screen has an electric fan mounted at its mouth, but this fan, instead of expelling the air, draws it in. A funnel leads out from this fan, and suspended in the opening is a brush that is designed to be smeared with molasses or some other mixture to serve as bait. The flies smell the bait and head for it, but when they get within the radius of the suction created by the fan they go rushing by and are drawn into the wire portion of the trap. When this wire part is filled it is detached and the occupants drowned.

There is courtesy of the heart; it is allied to love. From it springs the purest courtesy in the outward behavior.—Goethe.

If you want to improve the physique of your country you have got to do it through your system of national education.—Mr. Charles Trevelyan, M. P.

BAIL IS RENEWED IN THE TRUST CASE

Hearn and O'Connor Secured Theirs Last Evening; Cook This Afternoon

After some little trouble, recalling the difficulty over the securing of bail in the first place, Franklin C. Cook, who stands indicted by the grand jury on two charges, those of conspiracy and theft, appeared before Mr. Justice Morrison with his bondsmen, and was released from custody.

R. N. O'Connor and J. O. Hearn had been able to get their bail renewed shortly before midnight last night, after they had been in the custody of the provincial police from the time their counsel secured a postponement until fall of their cases. Cook, however, was unable to get his bondsmen until this afternoon, and had to spend the night in the provincial jail.

Just before the court rose for luncheon he came into court with his counsel, W. H. Bullock-Webster, and his bondsmen, Edward St. Albans and Mrs. Mary Olive Julian, and the crown prosecutor expressed the satisfaction of the crown with the bail offered.

Cook was then bound over in the sum of $8,000 on the theft charge and $5,000 on the conspiracy charge, in which he is jointly indicted with the other two defendants, and the bondsmen were bound in $4,000 each in the one case and $2,500 each in the other to produce him for trial at the next assizes.

VETERAN ENGINEER VISITS VICTORIA

Collingwood Schreiber is Still in Harness, After 61 Years Service

SOME REMINISCENCES OF EARLY PIONEERS

There was nothing of the sere and yellow leaf about one of Canada's "Grand Old Men" as he sat in the Empress hotel this morning, and with his eyes alight with memories, went over some of the incidents in the early days of pioneering in this country. The man was no other than Collingwood Schreiber, who has been one of Canada's foremost engineers and a trusted servant of the Canadian government for many years; of whom Sir Charles Tupper has said, "As an authority on railways he is sounder than a bell."

Mr. Schreiber has indeed long passed the borne put by the psalmist on human endeavor, but the fact that he is to-day still in harness, still enduring hardships that he takes as lightly as other men take a spin in an automobile, is evidence of the stuff that those early pioneers who led the shining road of steel from ocean to ocean are made of. One has but to look into the brown face, somewhat wrinkled now and beaten with the rain and hail and sunshine of many years, to realize that of these hard grained men of undaunted spirit and indomitable courage was Canada riven from the void into the fairest land of earth. His eyes have seen the forests fall, and in their place spring prosperous towns; he has seen the ribbon of steel cross the mountains, a heritage to the future of the greatest engineering feats that this old earth has ever seen, and now at a time when most men would be right glad to take their hand from the plough, Mr. Schreiber is in charge of the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, another link between shore and shore.

"Hardships?" he said this morning in answer to a query the Times man put to him. "It all depends what standard of hardship you take. What I call hardship was that endured by Captain Scott in his struggle in the Antarctic. In early days we used to live on beans and bacon for weeks, and think it good fare, but now your young engineer expects to have a whole herd of cattle driven behind him to provide him with fresh meat; he looks for his tinned fruit and other little luxuries that were unknown in our day.

"Perhaps," Mr. Schreiber continued, "you have heard of Major Rogers, the man who was responsible for the Rogers Pass through the mountains. He was the most economical man I have ever encountered. He would take a bit of bacon in his pouch and go off into the mountains for weeks. Finally his men complained to Mr. Van Horne (as he was then) that Rogers had boiled his ham bags to make soup. Major Rogers wrote in reply that he was surprised that his friend Van Horne, who knew him so well could believe him capable of such extravagance as to buy hams so that he might get ham bags to boil."

Other pioneers that Mr. Schreiber remembers well are H. P. Bell, who died in Vancouver recently, and who was on the first surveys in '72, Marcus Smith, and Walter Moberly, who now resides in the Terminal City.

Asked as to the progress which is being made on the G. T. P. railway, the well-known engineer declared that steel had now been laid 205 miles from Wolf Creek, and about 200 miles from Prince Rupert, while the space between the opposite ends is rapidly being graded, though the steel bridges which have to be erected are holding up the work to some extent. The Boulder Creek steel bridge, however, is well nigh completion.

On the line between Monckton and Winnipeg the track is connected nearly through, and Mr. Schreider expects that it will be open for traffic this year. The government part of the railway is virtually completed, though it will take a good deal more money before the task can be said to be finally accomplished.

Mr. Schreiber avers that there are no labor troubles on the line, and that there are practically five thousand men at work on the system.

"Of course," he said, "that number does not really represent the total men on the line because there are so many labor-saving devices. For instance, we have now working thirty steam shovels, each of which does the work of at least one hundred men. Another advantage of them over the workman is that they do not go on strike."

Like other great Canadians who have been much in the West, Mr. Schreiber deprecates the habit of over-speculation, which he considers a curse in the country. Over-booming, he also remarked, is a very great mistake. "A few men, perhaps, make a great deal of money," he says, "but the majority suffer."

BEGIN WORK ON NEW HOTEL ON BROAD ST.

Six Story Structure Will Soon Replace Murphy's Cafe; Another Being Planned

Plans for the hotel which W. H. Murphy is to erect on the present site of Murphy's saloon in Broad street, call for an eight-story building, of which six will be erected at once. Razing the present building will commence on June 1 if the license commissioners meet soon enough to vote the temporary transfer of the cafe license to Fort street during building operations.

The hotel will have 34 rooms for guests, with private baths, telephones in every room, a high-speed elevator and other modern equipment. The basement will be devoted to a grill and the ground floor will contain the saloon, the office and an entrance to the upstair part of the building.

Jesse M. Warren, a young local architect, drew the plans.

This architect has also prepared plans for four storys of a six-story hotel to be erected at the corner of Cormorant and Store streets on the site of the Lighthouse saloon. The building, which is being put up by the Victoria Phoenix Brewery Company, will contain about 30 rooms with all modern equipment and will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000.

DAILY MAIL SERVICE STARTS SATURDAY

Official Notification Received at the Board of Trade This Morning

CONDITION OF AFFAIRS LONG SOUGHT FOR

Increased Facilities Mostly Due to the Work of the Local Board

Good news was received at the office of the board of trade this morning. For some time past the local board has been agitating for a daily mail service to Alberni, and immediately on the opening of the daily traffic with the canal town one of its committees got into touch with Ottawa, and recommended to the postmaster that daily facilities be provided forthwith. It was not long before the deputy postmaster of Canada replied that efforts would be made to inaugurate a daily service as soon as possible, and to-day a letter was received from the superintendent of railway mail service apprising the board that the daily train service with Port Alberni would come into vogue on Victoria Day.

Here is a copy of the letter received: "I take pleasure in advising you that the frequency of the mail service between Victoria and Port Alberni is being increased to daily except Sunday, effective on and from the 24th inst., this I think, being a very good way to celebrate Victoria Day, yours very truly,

J. O. McLEOD,
Superintendent of Railway Mail Service.

The significance of such a step, and the bearing which it will have on the two termini of the line, together with those stations en route can scarcely be over-estimated, especially in regard to the business relations between the places involved. In the past the insufficient service has done much to stultify the passage of business, and this barrier has now been removed. The running of the first train of the daily mail service on Saturday next is indeed a good way for the railway to celebrate Victoria Day.

PEOLE'S SHIELD.

The first entry for the People's Shield cup competition, which is scheduled to be held here this month, was received this morning by Secretary A. Fordyce from Nanaimo Uniteds. It was thought that teams from Calgary, Fort William and other eastern cities would compete. Nothing has been heard from those places.

SPORTING NOTES

There are three left-handed men playing on the Portland club, and none of them are pitchers either. Melchior in centre, Fries in right and Mohler at second are the portsiders. It is not often that so many are seen in the same club. Put Stanley in to pitch and they would comprise nearly half the team.

* * *

The Tacoma Club has uniforms which are a novelty. They are made of the regulation brown army khaki, with red stockings and caps. The idea is McGinnity's, who claims they are warmer and more serviceable than the ordinary kind. He had his Newark club in the Eastern League garbed in the same material for two seasons.

* * *

Ducky Holmes of the Sioux City Western League Club wants to send Bobby James back to the Northwestern League, and has offered him to Vancouver. James is not going very well this season.

* * *

SIR ARTHUR IS 54.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, the creator of "Sherlock Holmes," will be fifty-four years old to-morrow, but he is still an enthusiastic sportsman, as he has always been. Golf and cricket are the favorite outdoor sports of the great novelist, but it is at billiards that he really shines. He is fond of boxing, and is often among those present at the London shows.
